CHAPTER 198.

AN ACT to amend section 198.22 of the statutes, relating to municipal water districts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 198.22 of the statutes is amended to read: 198.22 MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICT; CREATION, OPERATION. The provisions of sections 198.01 to 198.21 shall also apply to the creation and government of a separate municipal water district, and such district shall have power and authority to own, purchase by agreement, construct and operate any utility for the production, transmission, delivery or furnishing of water only, either directly or indirectly to or for the public within and without the district, and to charge and collect rates, tolls and charges for the same in the same manner as provided in said sections 198.01 to 198.21 for municipal power districts. Upon the annexation of any town or part of a town, or of any city or village within any such municipal water district to a municipality outside of such water district, then the territory so annexed shall be detached from such municipal water district, subject to adjustment of assets and liabilities as provided for by section 66.03. When any such municipal water district shall be established in any county containing a city of the first class having a waterworks system, no town, city, or village in such district shall construct any part of its distribution system except according to the standard of sizes and grade of materials as used by such city of the first class. The directors shall be entitled to no compensation for their services. The general manager shall devote such part of his time to the business of the district, and shall have such qualifications, powers and duties as the board of directors shall determine. The financial report provided for in section 198.16 (3) shall be published as the board determines. The initial resolution or petition provided for by section 198.03 may include a statement that "said district shall not have power to levy any general taxes", and if so included, the referendum ballot provided for by section 198.06 shall include a similar statement, and thereupon said district, if created, shall be without power or authority to levy any general taxes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 2, 1933.
