

action, examination or other proceeding and all papers therein, shall be transmitted to the presiding judge thereof who shall proceed with the action, examination or other proceeding in the same manner as if originally instituted before him. But at the time of applying for any such removal and making such request in writing to such justice for removal to said county court and paying to him seventy-five cents for making a copy of his docket and transmitting the papers in the case, the defendant, his agent or attorney shall in addition to said seventy-five cents pay to said justice one dollar for state tax, which said dollar such justice shall transmit to the clerk of said county court with the papers in the case, and upon receipt thereof such clerk shall file said papers and enter said case in his records as a case in said county court. And if such one dollar be not paid to such justice with said seventy-five cents, then said justice, if seventy-five cents has been paid to him, shall transmit said copy of his docket and all the papers in the case to any justice of the peace in the same town, village or city by law qualified to try the case; and if such proceedings be an examination then in his discretion he may so transmit to any court commissioner in said town, village or city, instead of to another justice.

And if the defendant finally prevail in such action such one dollar and seventy-five cents shall be taxed with the costs in his favor in said county court, in addition to any other costs therein allowed to the defendant.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 382.

AN ACT to create section 67.125 of the statutes, relating to municipal borrowing.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read:

67.125 TEMPORARY BORROWING BY CITIES, VILLAGES AND TOWNS.

(1) In addition to the powers given under section 67.12, any city, village or town which is in need of money to pay its current and ordinary expenses or to pay off valid obligations theretofore issued by such municipality under section 67.12, may by resolution adopted by at least a three-fourths' affirmative vote of all of the members-elect of its governing body, borrow money for such purposes in an amount not exceeding the portion of the uncollected delinquent taxes which are to be returned to such municipality under the provisions of the law, when same shall have been collected. Such loans shall be evidenced by bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of the issuing municipality, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum and payable at such times as the governing body shall determine, not exceeding, however, five years from the date of such bonds or evidences of indebtedness. All money received by such municipality from such delinquent taxes shall be paid into a sinking fund for the sole purpose of paying said bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and the interest thereon until the amount of such sinking fund shall equal the amount of interest and principal due and unpaid on such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness. Such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall be the general obligations of the municipality issuing the same and the governing body shall before the issuance thereof levy by recorded resolution a direct annual tax sufficient in amount to pay, and for the express purpose of paying, the interest on such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness as it falls due and also to pay and discharge the principal thereof at maturity. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided for, the provisions of chapter 67 relative to the issuance of bonds shall be applicable to the issuance of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness under this subsection, provided that it shall not be necessary to submit the question of the issuance of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness to the electors for approval.

(2) In addition to the powers given under section 67.12 and in lieu of the power granted by subsection (1) of this section, any city, village or town which is in need of money to pay its current and ordinary expenses or to pay off valid obligations theretofore issued by such municipality under section 67.12, or to provide funds for public works, may by resolution adopted by at least a three-fourths' affirmative vote of all of the members-elect of its governing body, borrow money for such purposes in an amount not exceeding the portion of the uncollected delinquent taxes which are to be returned to such municipality under the provisions of the law, when same shall have been collected. Such loans shall be evidenced by bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of the issuing municipality, bearing interest at such rate and payable at such times as the governing body shall determine, not exceeding, however, five years from the date of such bonds or evidences of indebtedness. All money received by such municipality from such delinquent taxes shall be paid into a sinking fund for the sole purpose of paying said bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and the interest thereon until the amount of such sinking fund shall equal the amount of interest and principal due and unpaid on such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness. Such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness shall not be the general obligations of the municipality issuing the same. It shall not be necessary to submit the question of the issuance of such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness to the electors for approval.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) of this section are severable and the invalidity of either of these subsections shall not affect the other.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
