CHAPTER 69.

AN ACT to amend subsection (15) of section 272.18 of the statutes, relating to exemption of wages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (15) of section 272.18 of the statutes is amended to read: (272.18) (15) Sixty per cent of the earnings of any person having a family dependent upon him for support at the time of the commencement of proceedings for the collection of debt, including the earnings of any minor child or children whose earnings contribute to the support of such family, but not * * * less than sixty nor more than one hundred dollars for the month preceding the issue of any writ or attachment, execution, garnishment or the institution of proceedings supplementary to execution, and not less than one hundred eighty nor more than three hundred dollars for the preceding three months. An additional amount of ten dollars for such preceding month and thirty dollars for such preceding three months shall be allowed for each child under sixteen years of age dependent upon him for support. In computing the foregoing exemptions, the earnings for any month shall be considered reduced by the amount of any sum recovered during that month in any action mentioned in this subsection. The debtor shall not be entitled to the exemption under this subsection, unless it shall be shown that he is actually and reasonably contributing according to his means and circumstances to the support of said family. The garnishee shall recover costs when the property to be reached is exempt from execution against the principal debtor at the time of serving the process on the garnishee. All crops, live stock, dairy products and all other products grown or produced by a person to which his personal effort or that of his minor children has contributed, and all proceeds from the sale of such crops, live stock, dairy products, and other products shall be deemed earnings within the meaning of this subsection, but such definition of earnings shall not limit any other exemption provided by this section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1933.
