CHAPTER 207.

AN ACT to amend 188.09 (1) of the statutes, relating to corporate powers of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War and affiliates.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 188.09 of the statutes is amended to read:

(188.09) (1) Any chapter, county or district council, or department of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, organized in this state pursuant to an act of congress of the United States, known as public no. 186, seventy-second congress, (H. R. 4738), and the acts amendatory thereto, any unit or department of the auxiliary of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War in this state and any dugout or state department of the national order of trench rats, their auxiliaries and affiliated organizations, or any department thereof, organized in this state, shall have full corporate power to transact business in this state and to take over the assets and liabilities of the existing chapters, county or district councils, department of Wisconsin, their auxiliaries and affiliated organizations, or any department thereof, upon filing with the secretary of state a statement of its intent so to do, and a full and complete list of its duly elected officers, and shall by so doing become a body corporate. Each such chapter, county or district council, department, unit, dugout and state department thereof, their auxiliaries or affiliated organizations, shall during each succeeding year of its existence file with the secretary of state on or before * * * April 1 of each succeeding year thereafter a like list of its duly elected officers. No filing fee shall be charged by the secretary of state for so doing.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
