

No. 515, A.]

[Published June 22, 1943.]

CHAPTER 349.

AN ACT to amend 29.135 (1) of the statutes, relating to licenses for wholesale fish markets.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

29.135 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

29.135 (1) Every person who deals in fish by operating a wholesale fish market or fish house shall secure a license from the state conservation commission, subject to the provisions of section 29.09. Every license shall expire on December 31, and the fee for such license is $25. For the purpose of this section all persons who purchase fish and sell them to anyone other than a consumer shall be considered a wholesale dealer. This includes all fish other than fish that are cooked in cans and ready for table use, or pickled fish, or fish meal.

Approved June 19, 1943.

No. 607, A.]

[Published June 22, 1943.]

CHAPTER 350.

AN ACT to amend 103.23 (2), 103.67 (2) and 103.71 (2) of the statutes, relating to the age limit of boys employed in street trades.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 103.23 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

103.23 (2) No boy under 13 years of age shall be employed or permitted to work at any time in any street trade; except that boys under 13 years of age who have street trade permits and badges issued prior to the enactment of this section may continue their employment in street trades. For the duration of the present war and until its termination as proclaimed by the President or the Congress of the United States and for 6 months thereafter, the industrial commission, in its discretion, may issue permits to boys to engage in house to house street trades in residential areas when such boys have reached the age of 12 years.