CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to amend 59.82 and 360.34 (2) of the statutes, relating to auditing of magistrates' dockets and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 59.82 of the statutes is amended to read:

59.82 The auditing committee of the county board in counties which have such a committee and in other counties the county auditor, or the county clerk if there is no county auditor, shall personally, before the meeting of the county board in each year, inspect the docket of every justice of the peace, police justice, municipal judge or other magistrate in the county who is authorized to receive fines under section 360.34, when such magistrate has had any criminal case during the previous year and ascertain therefrom the amount of such fines received by any such magistrate during the preceding year ending October 31 and make a separate written report for each such magistrate, which report shall be verified by his affidavit, embrace the title of each case in which any such fine was received, the date of conviction and the total amount of fines received during the period covered by such report. To facilitate the making of such examinations and reports the several magistrates shall deliver their dockets to the auditing committee, county auditor or county clerk, as the case may be, at such time before or during the annual meeting of the county board and at such place as such committee, auditor or clerk may designate, to be forthwith examined and to be returned to such magistrate on the same day of delivery. Failure or refusal of a justice, municipal judge or other magistrate to deliver his docket at the time and place designated by such committee, auditor or clerk shall subject the justice, municipal judge or magistrate to the penalties specified in section 360.34 (2). The county board shall, at their annual meeting, compare the reports upon such examinations with those made by magistrates pursuant to said section 360.34.

SECTION 2. 360.34 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

360.34 (2) Any magistrate who shall fail or neglect to make the entries, report or payment herein required or who shall refuse to submit his docket or other record for inspection as required by law shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than * * * $200 or by imprisonment for not less than 10 days and not to exceed 60 days or both for each offense. The county boards may direct the proper district attorney to prosecute any magistrate who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this or any other section relating to the payment of such fines to the county treasurer or the inspection of his docket or other record.
