CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 16.32 (2) of the statutes, relating to the appointment of a chief examiner of county civil service commission, requiring recording of minutes and making same available for public inspection in counties having a population of 200,000 or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

16.32 (2) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

16.32 (2) Every such commission may appoint a chief examiner whose duty it shall be, under its direction, to superintend any examinations held in such county under sections 16.31 to 16.44, and to perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe. Such chief examiner shall be ex officio secretary of the commission, and under the direction of such commission he, as such secretary, shall cause the minutes of its proceedings to be taken in shorthand and fully transcribed. The original transcribed copy shall be the official minutes of such proceedings and shall be open and available for public inspection. Such secretary shall preserve all reports made to the commission, keep a record of all examinations held under its direction, and perform such
