

WISCONSIN SESSION LAWS, 1947

No. 1, S.]

[Published January 18, 1947.

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT relating to transferring employes of state departments to the 1947 legislature for employment in legislative positions.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

During the 1947 session of the legislature employes of any state department may be transferred to the legislature for employment in legislative positions and shall receive compensation for their services in such employment at rates prescribed by law for such legislative positions. Such transfer and employment by the legislature shall apply to both male and female employes. Employes so transferred and employed shall retain uninterrupted their civil service rating, sick leave, vacation and other rights under chapter 16 of the statutes and after termination of their employment in such legislative positions shall be returned to the respective departments from which they were transferred for resumption of their regular employment.

Approved January 16, 1947.

No. 124, S.]

[Published February 14, 1947.

CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT to create 111.05 (3m) of the statutes, relating to run-off elections in determining collective bargaining representatives.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

111.05 (3m) of the statutes is created to read:

111.05 (3m) Whenever an election has been conducted pursuant to subsection (3) in which the name of more than one proposed representative appears on the ballot and results in no conclusion, the board may, in its discretion, if requested by any party to the proceeding within 30 days from the date of the certification of the results of such election, conduct a run-off election. In such run-off election, the board may drop from the ballot the name of the representative that received the least number of votes at the original election, or the privilege of voting against any representative when the least number of votes cast at the first election was against representation by any named representative.

Approved February 14, 1947.

No. 37, S.]

[Published February 28, 1947.

CHAPTER 3.

AN ACT relating to legislative employes, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

There is appropriated from the general fund to the legislature for the 1947 regular session, or any special session intervening between the 1947 and 1949 regular sessions, a sum sufficient to provide a bonus to each legislative employe as follows: $1 per day to each employe paid from the appropriations made under section 20.01 (2) (b), (2m) (b), (5) (a), (b), (c), (6) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (7) (a), (b), and (8) (a), (b) of the statutes. Such bonus shall be paid at the end of the legislative session and shall be computed from the effective date of this act. The proper certification officer shall as soon as possible after the sine die adjournment of the session certify to the secretary of state the amount due each such employe under this act and the secretary of state shall draw his warrant for the amount so certified for each such employe.

Deposited without approval of Governor.