CHAPTER 70.

AN ACT to create 95.49 (7) of the statutes, relating to the Bang's status of bovine animals on leased farm premises.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

95.49 (7) of the statutes is created to read:

95.49 (7) Except as provided in subsection (2), it shall be unlawful for the lessor of any farm premises to permit any of the bovine animals on such farm to be commingled with bovine animals belonging to a tenant thereof unless all such animals other than official vaccinates shall have passed negative a test for Bang's disease conducted within the last previous 30 days. Violation of this subsection shall constitute cause for rescission of the lease of such farm by the tenant.

Approved April 25, 1947.

CHAPTER 71.

AN ACT to amend 42.61 (4) and create 42.61 (5) of the statutes, relating to retirement rights of certain persons transferred from federal service to state service.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 42.61 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

42.61 (4) Persons who have become members of the state employes retirement system shall not thereafter lose their status as members while they remain in the state service on any basis, including leaves of absence, except as provided in subsection (1) (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (g). Employes who are absent from the state service on military leave under section * * * 16.276, and who left positions in which they would have become members had they continued in such positions, shall be deemed to be members of the state employes' retirement system. Any such employe who re-enters state service as provided in section 16.276 shall be permitted, under rules and
