

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In 1932 the University of Wisconsin recognized Mr. Hanson's contribution to the farmers of the state by awarding him a citation as a Master Farmer.

Mr. Hanson was also prominent as an active member of the West Koshkonong Lutheran Church and on numerous occasions was a delegate to national church conventions.

As a tribute to the distinguished and lengthy public service and fine character of James C. Hanson; now, therefore, be it

JOINT RESOLUTION

Pledging the full co-operation of the state of Wisconsin, its agencies, and people, to the war department, in the development of Camp McCoy as a permanent military camp.

WHEREAS, It has been recently announced that Camp McCoy has been designated as a permanent military post contemplating a full utilization of the 61,000 acre reservation and the erection of many new permanent buildings, and

WHEREAS, The army has made recommendations that regional improvements be provided for highways, railroads, telephone communication, supply routes, feeder routes, and expanded school, airport and recreational facilities, and

WHEREAS, The army must depend upon the state and the nearby communities to assist in the provision of many of these improvements and to coordinate their activities with the planning of Camp McCoy in order to assure the greatest possible benefits to the army, the state and the nearby communities in becoming a vital and integral part of this region, and

WHEREAS, It is highly necessary that such camp and its operation be continued in the state of Wisconsin so as to afford a good training area and good living conditions tending to a high morale for the personnel, and suitable public utilities, highways and
