CHAPTER 437

AN ACT to amend 241.09 of the statutes, relating to assignment of wages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

241.09 of the statutes is amended to read:

241.09 No assignment of the salary or wages of any married man shall be valid for any purpose unless such assignment shall be in writing signed by the wife, if she at the time be a member of his family, and unless her signature be witnessed by 2 disinterested witnesses; nor shall any assignment of the salary or wages of any person be valid as to any such salary or wages to accrue more than 2 months after the date of the making of such assignment, except that assignments of salary or wages made directly to licensees under ss. 115.07, 115.09, 214.15 or to state or national banks, savings banks, trust company banks, savings and loan associations or credit unions, may include salary or wages to accrue more than 2 months after the date of making such assignment, and except that any assignment of wages made in connection with a proceeding under s. 128.21 shall run concurrently with the period during which the amortization proceedings are in effect and shall become void upon the dismissal of the proceedings. Nothing in this section shall apply to assignments made under s. 101.10 (14) * * * nor to any authorization from an employe to his employer directing him to make deductions from wages to accrue in the future for union or employe club dues, insurance or annuities, war bond purchases, contributions to the American Red Cross, a community fund or other similar charity, or any indebtedness to his employer.

Approved July 21, 1955.
