48.01 TITLE, INTENT AND CONSTRUCTION OF CHAPTER.

- (1) TITLE. This chapter may be cited as "The Children's Code."
- (2) INTENT. It is declared to be the intent of this chapter to promote the best interests of the children of this state through:
- (a) Juvenile courts adequately equipped to review each case on its individual merits under procedures designed to safeguard the legal rights of the child and his parents;
  - (b) An integrated and co-ordinated program for all delinquent, neglected and dependent children both in their own community and while in the custody of the state;
  - (c) Protection of children from unnecessary separation, either temporary or permanent, from their parents;
  - (d) Adequate care and rehabilitation for all children who must be separated from their parents temporarily for the child's protection or that of the public;
  - (e) Co-ordinated planning to assist local communities in promoting effective programs in health, education, recreation and welfare for the maximum development of all children and for the control of influences detrimental to youth;
  - (f) Assurance for children needing adoptive homes that they will be placed in the best home available; protection of children from adoption by persons unfit to have responsibility for raising a child; protection for children who are legally established in adoptive homes from interference by their natural parents.

(3) CONSTRUCTION. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effect the objectives in sub. (2). The best interests of the child shall always be of paramount consideration, but the court shall also consider the interest of the parents or guardian of the child and the interest of the public.

48.02 DEFINITIONS. In this chapter the following words and phrases have the designated meanings:

- (1) "Agency" unless qualified includes the state department of public welfare, county agencies, and licensed child welfare agencies.

But the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall be paramount in all cases involving children alleged to come within the provisions of ss. 48.12, 48.13 and 48.14.

48.16 VENUE. Venue for any proceeding under ss. 48.12 and 48.13 shall be in any of the following: the county where the child resides, the county where he is present or, in the case of a violation of a state law or a county, town or municipal ordinance, the county where the violation occurred.

48.17 CONCURRENT JURISDICTION OF CIVIL COURTS OVER VIOLATIONS OF TRAFFIC ORDINANCES. Except in counties having a population of 500,000 or more, courts of civil jurisdiction shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the juvenile court in proceedings against children for violations of county or municipal ordinances enacted under s. 85.84. But disposition of such cases shall be made under s. 48.36 instead of under the ordinance.

48.18 JURISDICTION OF CRIMINAL COURT OVER CHILDREN 16 OR OLDER. The criminal courts shall have jurisdiction over a child 16 or older who is alleged to have violated a state law only if the juvenile court deems it contrary to the best interest of such child or of the public to hear the case and enters an order waiving its jurisdiction and referring the matter to the district attorney for appropriate proceedings in the criminal court. In that event, the district attorney of the county shall proceed with the case in the same manner as though the jurisdiction of the juvenile court had never attached.

PROCEDURES

48.19 INFORMAL DISPOSITION. Whenever any person gives the court information tending to show that a child comes within the provisions of s. 48.12 or 48.13; an investigation shall be made by persons designated by the court to determine the facts. If this investigation shows that the child does not come within the provisions of s. 48.12, or 48.13, the court shall take no further action. If the investigation shows that the child is within the provisions of s. 48.12 or 48.13 the court may authorize the filing of a petition under s. 48.20 or, if it determines that neither the interests of the child nor of the public require that a petition be filed, may defer further proceedings on the condition that the child appear with his parent, guardian or legal custodian for counseling and advice or that the child abide by such obligations imposed upon him with respect to his future conduct as the court deems necessary or advisable to insure the child's protection, correction or rehabilitation. The obligations so imposed may be in writing and copies thereof furnished to the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child. If a parent, guardian or legal custodian objects to these obligations he shall have the right to have a petition filed in relation to his child.

48.20 PETITION. (1) The petition and all subsequent court documents under ss. 48.12 and 48.13 shall be entitled "In the interest of ----- a child under 18 years of age."

(2) The petition shall be drafted by a suitable person designated by the court. It shall be verified and may be upon information and belief. It shall set forth plainly: (a) the facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court; (b) the name, age, and residence of the child; (c) the names and residence of his parents; (d) the name and residence of his guardian if there be one, of the person having legal custody of the child, or of the nearest known relative if no parent or guardian can be found.

(3) If any of the facts in sub. (2) are not known or cannot be ascertained by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

(4) In case of a violation of a provision of ch. 85 or a county or municipal ordinance enacted under s. 85.84 no petition is necessary and the complaint may serve as sufficient basis for a court hearing, unless the child is alleged to be delinquent under s. 48.12.

48.21 SUMMONS; NOTICE. (1) After a petition has been filed relating to facts under ss. 48.12 or 48.13 and after such further investigation as the court directs, unless the parties hereinafter named voluntarily appear, the court shall issue a summons requiring the person who has legal custody of the child to appear personally and, if the court so orders, to bring the child before the court at a time and place stated.

(2) If the person so summoned is someone other than the parent or guardian of the child, the parent or guardian or both shall be notified of the pendency of the case and of the time and place appointed.

(3) Summons may be issued requiring the appearance of any other person whose presence, in the opinion of the court, is necessary.

48.22 SERVICE OF SUMMONS; EXPENSES. (1) Service of summons or notice required by s. 48.21 shall be made personally by the delivery of a copy thereof to the persons summoned or notified. But, if the court is satisfied that it is impracticable to serve such summons or notice personally, it may make an order providing for the service of such summons or notice by registered mail addressed to the last known addresses of such persons or, if no address is known, by publication thereof. Personal service shall be effected at least 24 hours before the time of the hearing; registered mail shall be mailed at last 5 days before the time of the hearing if within the state or 14 days if outside the state; publication shall be made once in some newspaper printed and circulated in the county in which the hearing will take place at least one week before the time of the hearing.

(2) Service of summons or notice required by s. 48.21 or s. 48.42 may be made by any suitable person under the direction of the court.

(3) The expenses of service of summons or notice or of the publication of summons or notice and the traveling expenses and fees as allowed in ch. 325 incurred by any person summoned or required to appear at the hearing of any case coming within the jurisdiction of the court under ss. 48.12, 48.13, 48.14, and 48.44 shall be a charge on the county when approved by the court.

48.23 FAILURE TO OBEY SUMMONS; CAPIAS. If any person summoned fails without reasonable cause to appear, he may be proceeded against for contempt of court. In case the summons cannot be served or the parties served fail to obey the same, or in any case when it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual a capias may be issued for the parent, or guardian, or for the child.

48.24 PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATION. The court may order any person coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a clinical psychologist, having the qualifications required by s. 51.23, a psychiatrist or physician, appointed by the court, in order that the condition of such person may be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. The expenses of such examination, when approved by the court, shall be paid by the county. In counties maintaining an examination service by one or more physicians, psychiatrists or clinical psychologists such county service shall be used for the purposes of this examination.

48.25 HEARING. (1) GENERAL. The procedure to be followed at the hearing shall be determined by the juvenile court judge and may be as formal or informal as he considers desirable. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. The general public shall be excluded and only such persons admitted as the court shall find to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. The presence of the child in court may be waived by the court at any stage of the proceeding.

(2) JURY TRIAL. There shall be a jury trial only if one is demanded. Justice court practice in civil actions shall govern the selection of jurors.

(3) EVIDENCE. If there is a disputed issue of fact, the customary rules of evidence applied to issues of fact in civil trials shall be followed. The finding of fact shall rest on the preponderance of evidence adduced under those rules. Every order shall be based on a finding of fact, entered of record.

(4) RECORD. Stenographic notes of the hearing shall be kept but shall be transcribed only upon order of the court.

(5) GUARDIAN AD LITEM. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem in any case in which it feels that such appointment is desirable.

(6) APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL. If any child or his parents desire counsel but are unable to employ it, the court in its discretion may appoint counsel to represent them. Such counsel shall be allowed reasonable compensation to be paid by the county wherein the proceeding shall be held, upon the order of the court.

48.26 RECORDS. (1) Peace officers' records of children shall be kept separate from records of persons 18 or older and shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed except by order of the court. This subsection shall not apply to the representatives of newspapers or other reporters of news who wish to obtain information for the purpose of reporting news without revealing the identity of the child involved or to the confidential exchange of information between the police and officials of the school attended by the child or other law enforcement or social welfare agencies or to children 16 or older who are transferred to the criminal courts.

(2) Juvenile court records shall be entered in books or deposited in files kept for that purpose only. They shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed except by order of the court.

48.27 SUPPORT OF CHILD WHEN LEGAL CUSTODY TRANSFERRED FROM PARENT. (1) Whenever legal custody of a child is taken by the court from the child's parents, or whenever the child is given medical, psychological or psychiatric treatment under order of the court, and no provision is otherwise made by law for payment for the care or treatment of the child, compensation for it when approved by order of the court, shall be a charge upon the county. The court may, after giving the parents a reasonable opportunity to be heard, order them to pay as the court may direct, a sum, within their ability to pay, to cover in whole or in part the care or treatment of the child. If the parents fail, without good cause, or refuse to pay such sum, they may be proceeded against for contempt.

(2) The county charged with the cost of the care and treatment under sub. (1) may recover the cost from the county where the child has legal settlement by filing verified claims which shall be payable as are other claims against the county. Any dispute relating to the county of legal settlement may be appealed to the department under s. 46.106.

DETENTION

48.28 TAKING CHILD INTO CUSTODY. (1) No child may be taken into immediate custody except:

(a) With a capias issued by the judges of the juvenile court in accordance with s. 48.23 or with a warrant; or

(b) When in the presence of the officer who takes the child into custody a child has violated a county, town or municipal ordinance or a state or federal law and the officer believes that such action is necessary for the protection of the public interest; or

(c) When the officer finds a child in such surroundings or condition that he considers it necessary that he take the child into immediate custody for the child's welfare; or

(d) When it is reasonably believed that a child has committed an act which if committed by an adult would be a felony; or

(e) When it is reasonably believed that the child has run away from his parents, guardian or legal custodian or is a fugitive from justice;

(f) When it is reasonably believed that the child has violated the terms of his probation, parole or other field supervision.

(2) Taking into custody under this section shall not be considered an arrest.

48.29 RELEASE OR DETENTION. (1) When a child is taken into custody as provided in s. 48.28, the parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child shall be notified as soon as possible. The person taking the child into custody shall, unless it is impracticable, undesirable, or has been otherwise ordered by the court, return the child to his parent, guardian, or legal custodian on the promise of such person to bring the child to the court, if necessary, at a stated time or at such time as the court may direct. If the person taking the child into custody believes it desirable, he may request such parent, guardian or legal custodian to sign a written promise to bring the child to court as provided above.

(2) If the child is not released as provided in sub. (1), he may be detained in a place of detention specified in s. 48.30 but only on written order of the court specifying the reason for detention. The parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child shall be notified of the place of detention as soon as possible. If because of the unreasonableness of the hour or the fact that it is a Sunday or holiday it is impractical to obtain a written order from the court, the child may be detained without a written order of the court for a period of not to exceed 24 hours but a written record of such detention shall be kept and a report in writing filed with the court. The judge of the juvenile court may authorize any person, designated by s. 48.06 or 48.07 to provide services for the court, to order detention of the child.

48.30 PLACE OF DETENTION. (1) A court may order in writing, as provided in s. 48.29, the detention of a child in one of the following places:

- (a) A detention home established in accordance with s. 48.31; or
- (b) A licensed foster home, subject to the supervision of the court;

(c) A suitable place of detention maintained by a licensed child welfare agency, subject to the supervision of the court; or

(d) If the child's habits or conduct are such as to constitute a menace to himself or others, he may be detained in a jail or other facility for the detention of adults if he is placed in a room or ward which is entirely separate from adults confined therein and where there can be no communication with adults confined therein. This room or ward must have been approved by the department in a written instrument filed with the clerk of the juvenile court.

(2) No child shall be detained in a jail or other facility for the detention of adults except in accordance with this section.

(3) If a licensed foster home or licensed child welfare agency is used for the detention of children a reasonable sum, to be fixed by the court, shall be paid by the county for the care of the children.

48.31 ESTABLISHMENT OF DETENTION HOME. (1) The county board of one county may establish a detention home or 2 or more counties may join together and establish a detention home in accordance with s. 46.20. The policies of the detention home shall be determined by the judge of the juvenile court or, in the case of a detention home established by 2 or more counties, by a committee of the judges of the juvenile courts in the participating counties.

(2) Plans for the detention home shall be approved by the department as provided in s. 46.17. If the department approves, the home may be a part of a public building in which there is a jail or other facility for the detention of adults if it is so physically segregated from such jail or other facility that it may be entered without passing through areas where adults are confined and that children detained in the home cannot communicate with or view adults confined therein.

(3) The detention home shall be in charge of a superintendent and shall be furnished and conducted, as far as possible, as a family home. The judge or, where 2 or more counties operate a joint detention home, the committee of judges shall appoint the superintendent and other necessary personnel for the care and education of the children in the detention home, subject to civil service regulations in counties having civil service.

In counties having a children's court established under s. 48.05, the chief probation officer may serve as superintendent of the detention home if the county board so determines.

48.32 STATE-WIDE PLAN FOR DETENTION HOMES. The department shall assist counties in establishing detention homes under s. 48.31 by developing and promulgating a state-wide plan for the establishment and maintenance of suitable detention facilities reasonably accessible to each court.

DISPOSITION

48.33 DISMISSAL OF PETITION. If the court finds that the child is not within the jurisdiction of the court, or that the facts alleged in the petition have not been proved, it shall dismiss the petition.

48.34 DISPOSITION IF CHILD ADJUDGED DELINQUENT. (1) TYPE OF DISPOSITION. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making one of the following dispositions of the case:

- (a) Counsel the child or his parents, guardian, or legal custodian; or
- (b) Place the child under supervision in his own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for his conduct and the conduct of his parents, guardian, or legal custodian, designed for the physical, mental and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or
- (c) Relieve the parent, guardian or legal custodian of legal custody of the child and place him in a foster home as described in s. 48.62, except that the home does not have to be licensed if the child is placed there for less than 30 days.

(d) Transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

- 1. A relative of the child; or
- 2. A county agency specified in s. 48.56 (1); or
- 3. A licensed child welfare agency; or
- 4. The department.

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state law or a county, town, or municipal ordinance which has resulted in intentional damage to the property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage if the court considers it beneficial to the well-being and behavior of the child.

(f) If the child is in need of special treatment and care, the court may order the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian to provide such care. If the parent, guardian, or legal custodian fails to provide such care, the court may order it provided.

(2) ORDERS FOR SUPERVISION. All orders for supervision under sub.

(1) (b) shall automatically terminate at the end of one year unless the court specifies a shorter or longer period in its order. But the court has continuing jurisdiction to renew any order for supervision before it has expired, either on its own motion or that of any interested party, until the child reaches the age of 21.

(3) ORDERS TRANSFERRING LEGAL CUSTODY. (a) All orders under sub.

(1) (c) and (d), except orders transferring legal custody to the department, shall be for a specified length of time set by the court. But, before the order has expired the court has continuing jurisdiction to renew the order or make some other disposition of the case, either on its own motion or that of any interested party, until the child reaches the age of 21. Any person to whom legal custody of a child is transferred, except the department, shall report to the court in writing once a year on the status of the child. All transfers of legal custody to the department under sub. (1) (d) shall be until the age of 21 unless the department discharges the child sooner under s. 48.53.

(b) When the court transfers legal custody of a child to any licensed child welfare agency or the department, it shall transmit with the order transferring legal custody a summary of its information concerning the child or a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing.

(4) CONTINUING JURISDICTION. (a) The continuing jurisdiction of the court shall not prevent either a juvenile court in another county from taking jurisdiction of a child alleged to have violated a state law or a county, town or municipal ordinance in that county or a criminal court from taking jurisdiction of a person 18 or over who is alleged to have violated a state or federal law.

(b) If a child who is under the continuing jurisdiction of the court is present in another county, the court may order the case transferred along with all appropriate records to the court of the county where the child is.

48.35 DISPOSITION IF CHILD ADJUDGED NEGLECTED OR DEPENDENT. (1) TYPE OF DISPOSITION. If the court finds that the child is dependent or neglected, it shall enter an order making one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Place the child under supervision in his own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for his conduct and the conduct of his parents, guardian, or legal custodian, designed for the physical, mental and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or

(b) Relieve the parent, guardian or legal custodian of legal custody of the child and place him in a foster home as described in s. 48.62, except that the home does not have to be licensed if the child is placed there for less than 30 days.

(c) Transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

1. A relative of the child; or
2. A county agency specified in s. 48.56 (1); or
3. A licensed child welfare agency; or
4. The department.

(d) If the child is in need of special treatment and care, the court may order the child's parent, guardian or legal custodian to provide such care. If the parent, guardian, or legal custodian fails to provide such care, the court may order it provided.

(2) ORDERS TRANSFERRING LEGAL CUSTODY. (a) All orders under this subsection shall be for a specified length of time set by the court. But, before the order has expired, the court shall have continuing jurisdiction to renew the order or make some other disposition of the case, either on its own motion or that of any interested party, until the child reaches the age of 21. Any person to whom legal custody of a child is transferred shall report to the court in writing once a year on the status of the child.

(b) When the court transfers legal custody of a child to any licensed child welfare agency or the department, it shall transmit with the order transferring legal custody a summary of its information concerning the child or a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing.

(3) CONTINUING JURISDICTION. If a child who is under the continuing jurisdiction of the court under this section is present in another county, the court may order that case transferred along with all appropriate records to the court of the county where the child is.

48.36 DISPOSITION OF TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS. (1) JUVENILE COURT. If a juvenile court finds that a child has violated any provision of ch. 85 or any county or municipal ordinance enacted under s. 85.84, it shall dispose of the case in the following manner:

(a) In cases of moving vehicle violations, it shall suspend the child's motor vehicle operator's license for not less than 30 days nor more than 1 year by taking immediate possession of the license and mailing it with a report of the violation to the state motor vehicle department. But s. 85.08 (29) shall not be applicable to the first such suspension unless the court so orders. In addition, the court may require the child to attend traffic safety school as provided in s. 85.915 or may adjudge him delinquent and proceed under s. 48.34.

(b) In cases of nonmoving vehicle violations, it may counsel the child or may adjudge him delinquent.

(2) CIVIL COURT. If a civil court finds that a child has violated a county or municipal ordinance enacted under s. 85.84, it shall dispose of the case in the following manner:

(a) In cases of moving vehicle violations, it shall not impose a forfeiture but shall suspend the child's motor vehicle operator's license for not less than 30 days nor more than 1 year by taking immediate possession of the license and mailing it with a report of the violation to the state motor vehicle department. But s. 85.08 (29) shall not be applicable to the first such suspension unless the court so orders.

(b) In cases of nonmoving vehicle violations, it may impose a forfeiture in accordance with the terms of the ordinance and may enforce payment of the forfeiture by suspension of the child's motor vehicle operator's license until payment is made.

(c) In case of moving traffic violations during a period of suspension under par. (a), it may impose a forfeiture in accordance with the terms of the ordinance and may enforce payment of the forfeiture by an extension of the period of suspension for not to exceed one year, or until payment of the forfeiture.

48.37 COSTS AND FINES. No costs shall be assessed against and no fines shall be imposed on any child in the juvenile court.

48.38 EFFECT OF JUVENILE COURT PROCEEDINGS. (1) No adjudication upon the status of any child in the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall operate to impose any of the civil disabilities ordinarily imposed by conviction, nor shall any such child be deemed a criminal by reason of such adjudication, nor shall such adjudication be deemed a conviction. The disposition of any child's case or any evidence given in the juvenile court shall not be admissible as evidence against the child in any case or proceeding in any other court, nor shall such disposition or evidence disqualify a child in any future civil service examination, appointment or application.

(2) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to preclude the juvenile court, under circumstances other than those specifically prohibited in sub. (1), from disclosing information to qualified persons if the court considers such disclosure to be in the best interests of the child or of the administration of justice.

48.39 DISPOSITION BY JUVENILE COURT BARS CRIMINAL PROCEEDING. Disposition by the juvenile court of any violation of state law coming within its jurisdiction under s. 48.12 shall bar any future proceeding on the same matter in criminal court when the child reaches the age of 18. This provision does not affect proceedings in criminal court which have been transferred under s. 48.18.

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

48.40 GROUNDS FOR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS. The court may, upon petition, terminate all rights of parents to a minor in either of the following cases:

(1) With the written consent of the parents to the termination of their parental rights; or

(2) If it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(a) That the parents have abandoned the minor; or

(b) That the parents have substantially and continuously or repeatedly refused to give the minor necessary parental care and protection; or

(c) That, although the parents are financially able, they have substantially and continuously neglected to provide the minor with necessary subsistence, education, or other care necessary for his health, morals, or well-being or have neglected to pay for such subsistence, education or other care when legal custody is lodged with others; or

(d) That the parents are unfit by reason of debauchery, habitual use of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs, or repeated lewd and lascivious behavior, which conduct is found by the court to be likely to be detrimental to the health, morals or well-being of the minor. This paragraph applies only to cases where the legal custody of the minor has been transferred by order of a court of competent jurisdiction to a person other than the parents at least one year previous and the minor has not been returned to the legal custody of the parents within that period; or

(e) That the parents have been found mentally deficient under ch. 51 and the juvenile court finds that because of this mental deficiency the parents are, and will continue to be, incapable of giving the minor proper parental care and protection.

(3) The parental rights of parents who have been found mentally ill under ch. 51 may be terminated if grounds for termination under sub.

(2) (a) to (d) existed prior to the time of the finding of mental illness.

48.41 JURISDICTION AND VENUE FOR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS. The juvenile court has jurisdiction to terminate parental rights if the minor is within the state. If a court has made an order under ss. 48.34 or 48.35 transferring legal custody of the minor, that court shall hear the termination of parental rights proceeding unless it transfers the proceeding along with all appropriate records to the county where the minor or his parents are. Otherwise venue for the proceeding is in the county either where the minor is or where the parents whose rights are being terminated are.

48.42 PROCEDURE IN TERMINATING PARENTAL RIGHTS. (1) The termination of parental rights under s. 48.40 shall be made only after a hearing before the court. The court shall have notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing served on the parents personally at least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing; or if the court is satisfied that personal service, either within or outside the state, cannot be effected, then such notice may be given by registered mail sent at least 20 days before the date of the hearing to the last known address of the parent, if an address is known, and by publication thereof in a newspaper in the county once a week for 3 weeks prior to the date of hearing. A parent who consents to the termination of his parental rights under s. 48.40 (1) may waive in writing the notice required by this section; if the parent is a minor his waiver shall be effective only if his guardian ad litem concurs in writing.

(2) In the case of any minor or incompetent parent the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. No parental rights may be terminated on consent under s. 48.40 (1) unless the guardian ad litem, in writing, joins in the written consent of the parent to the termination of his parental rights.

48.43 DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDING TO TERMINATE PARENTAL RIGHTS. (1) If, after a hearing, the court finds that one or more of the conditions set out in s. 48.40 exist, it may terminate parental rights. If the court terminates parental rights of both parents, of the mother, if the child is illegitimate, or of the only living parent, the court shall transfer guardianship and legal custody of the minor to:

- (a) A county department of public welfare in counties having a population of 500,000 or more; or
- (b) A child welfare agency, licensed to accept guardianship of children; or
- (c) The department; or
- (d) A suitable individual in whose home the minor has resided at least one year prior to the termination of parental rights.

(2) If only one parent consents under s. 48.40 (1) or if the conditions specified in s. 48.40 (2) are found to exist as to only one parent, the rights of only that parent with reference to the minor may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent.

(3) A certified copy of the order terminating parental rights, a certified copy of the birth certificate of the minor, and a transcript of the testimony in the termination of parental rights hearing shall be furnished by the court to the person given guardianship of the minor.

JURISDICTION OVER PERSON 18 OR OLDER

48.44 JURISDICTION OVER PERSONS 18 OR OLDER. The court has exclusive jurisdiction over persons 18 or older in the following cases:

- (1) A case of contributing to the delinquency or neglect of a child under s. 48.45;
- (2) A petition by the department in accordance with s. 48.53 to retain legal custody beyond the age of 21 of a person adjudged delinquent.

48.45 CONTRIBUTING TO THE DELINQUENCY OR NEGLECT OF CHILDREN. (1) If in the hearing of a case of a child alleged to be delinquent or neglected, it appears that any person 18 or older has been guilty of contributing to, encouraging, or tending to cause by any act or omission, the delinquency or neglect of the child, the court may make orders with respect to the conduct of such person in his relationship to the child, including orders determining the ability of such person to provide for the maintenance or care of such child and directing when, how and where money for such maintenance or care shall be paid.

(2) No order to any person 18 or older pursuant to sub. (1) shall be entered until he has been given an opportunity to be heard upon the allegation against him and the contemplated order of the court. The court shall cause notice of the time, place and purpose of such hearing to be served on such person personally at least 10 days before the date of hearing. The procedure in such cases shall, as far as practicable, be the same as in other cases in the juvenile court, and shall otherwise be the procedure followed in courts of equity. Any person 18 or older who fails to comply with any order issued by a juvenile court pursuant to this section may be proceeded against for contempt of court, and if his conduct involves a crime, he may be proceeded against under the criminal law.

(3) If it appears at a juvenile court hearing that any person 18 or older has violated sub. (4), the judge shall refer the record to the district attorney for appropriate proceedings.

(4) The following persons may be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than one year in county jail or both:

- (a) Any person 18 or older who intentionally encourages or contributes to the delinquency or neglect of any child; or

(b) Any parent, guardian, or legal custodian who by neglect or disregard of the morals, health or welfare of his child contributes to the delinquency of that child.

(5) An act or failure to act contributes to the delinquency or neglect of a child, although the child does not actually become neglected or delinquent, if the natural and probable consequences of that act or failure to act would be to cause the child to become delinquent or neglected.

REHEARING AND APPEAL

48.46 NEW EVIDENCE. A parent, guardian, legal custodian or next friend of any child whose status has been adjudicated by the juvenile court may at any time within one year of the entering of the court's order petition the court for a rehearing on the ground that new evidence has been discovered affecting the advisability of the court's original adjudication or disposition. Upon a showing that such evidence does exist, the court shall order a new hearing and make such disposition of the case as the facts and the best interests of the child warrant.

48.47 APPEAL. Any person aggrieved by an adjudication of the juvenile court and directly affected thereby has the right to appeal to the circuit court of the same county within 40 days of the entry of the order in the manner in which appeals are taken from judgments in civil actions. No undertaking shall be required on such appeal. The order of the juvenile court shall stand, pending the determination of the appeal, but the circuit court may in its discretion and upon application stay such order.

PART III—CHILD WELFARE SERVICES

THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

48.48 AUTHORITY OF DEPARTMENT. The department shall have authority:

(1) To promote the enforcement of the laws relating to mentally defective, dependent, neglected, delinquent, and illegitimate children and to take the initiative in all matters involving the interests of such children where adequate provision therefor is not made. This duty shall be discharged in co-operation with the juvenile courts, county agencies, licensed child welfare agencies and with individuals interested in the welfare of children;

(2) To assist in extending and strengthening child welfare services in co-operation with the United States children's bureau in conformity with the federal social security act and in co-operation with other agencies so that all children needing such services are reached;

(1) A husband and wife jointly, or either the husband or wife if the other spouse is a parent of the minor;

(2) An unmarried adult.

48.83 JURISDICTION AND VENUE. The county court shall have jurisdiction to order an adoption. Venue shall be in the county where the petitioner resides.

48.84 PERSONS REQUIRED TO CONSENT TO ADOPTION. (1) No adoption of a minor may be ordered without the written consent of the following to the adoption of the minor by the petitioner:

(a) Both parents, if living, or the surviving parent, of a legitimate minor; provided, that consent shall not be required from one whose parental rights have been legally terminated; or

(b) The mother alone, if the minor is illegitimate; provided that consent shall not be required from a mother whose parental rights have been legally terminated; or

- (c) The guardian of the minor, if there is one; and
- (d) The minor himself if he is 14 or older.

(2) (a) The consents required by sub. (1) (a) and (b) shall be given in writing before a judge of any court of record, unless the court orders otherwise, after the judge has explained to the parent that such consent is irrevocable, except as provided in s. 48.86, and has examined the parent and is satisfied that the parent gives his consent voluntarily. In the case of a minor parent, his minority shall not be grounds for revoking consent, but a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for him and his consent shall be effective only when concurred in by the written consent of the guardian ad litem.

(b) The consent of the minor required by sub. (1) (d) shall be given in writing before the county judge, unless the court orders otherwise.

(3) The consent of the father of an illegitimate minor shall not be necessary even though the father has married the mother if, prior to the marriage, the mother's parental rights were legally terminated or she consented to the adoption of the minor in the manner provided in sub. (2).

(4) In the case of a minor brought to this state pursuant to the displaced persons act of 1948, as amended, a certification of the displaced persons commission or of the department stating that such child is available for adoption shall be in lieu of any further proof of death of parents, valid release by parents, termination of parental rights, or other similar requirements.

48.85 REFUSAL OF GUARDIAN TO CONSENT. If a guardian whose consent is required by s. 48.84 (1) (c) refuses to consent, he shall file with the court a summary of his reasons for withholding consent. After a study of this report, the court may dismiss the petition on the ground that the guardian refuses to consent or may set a time and place for a hearing to determine whether the guardian's refusal to consent is contrary to the best interests of the child. At least 10 days' notice in writing of the hearing shall be given to both the petitioner and the guardian refusing to consent. If the court, after the hearing, determines that the guardian's refusal to consent is arbitrary, capricious or not based on substantial evidence, it may waive the requirement of such consent and proceed to determine the petition for adoption in accordance with the best interests of the child.

48.86 WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT. Withdrawal of any consent filed in connection with a petition for adoption hereunder, shall not be permitted, except that the court, after notice and opportunity to be heard is given to the petitioner in the adoption proceedings, to the person seeking to withdraw consent, and to any agency participating in the adoption proceedings, may, if it finds that the best interests of the child will be furthered thereby, issue a written order permitting the withdrawal of such consent. The entry of an order of adoption renders any consent irrevocable.

48.87 FILING OF CONSENTS. Written consents required by s. 48.84 shall be filed with the court prior to the hearing. In the case of a consent by a guardian under s. 48.84 (1) (c), the guardian shall file with his consent satisfactory evidence of his authority to consent to adoption of the minor. In the case where the parents' rights have been judicially terminated, this evidence shall be a certified copy of the order terminating their rights and appointing the guardian. In other cases of a guardian appointed by a court, this evidence shall be a certified copy of the order appointing him guardian. In the case of a guardian having the authority to consent under an instrument other than a court order, valid under the laws of another state, that instrument shall serve as evidence of the authority to consent.

48.88 NOTICE OF HEARING; INVESTIGATION. (1) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall set a time and place for hearing the petition, allowing time for the investigation and report required by sub. (2), which must be received prior to the hearing. Notice of the hearing shall be mailed, at least 10 days prior to the hearing, to the agency making that investigation, to the state department of public welfare when its recommendation is required by s. 48.89.

(2) (a) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall order the state department of public welfare, a licensed child welfare agency, or a county agency specified in s. 48.56 to make an investigation of the environment and antecedents of the person to be adopted to ascertain whether he is a proper subject for adoption and of the home of the petitioner to determine whether it is a suitable home. The agency ordered to make the investigation shall make a report to the court within 90 days of the entry of the order for hearing unless the time is extended by the court. The report shall be part of the record of the proceedings.

(b) The investigation and report required by par. (a) is not necessary where the guardian of the child whose consent is required under s. 48.84 (1) (c) is either the state department of public welfare, a licensed child welfare agency or a county welfare department authorized by s. 48.57 to accept guardianship of a child; but that agency shall file with the court a report on its investigation of the environment and antecedents of the person to be adopted and of the home of the petitioner.

(3) If the report of the investigation is unfavorable or if it discloses a situation which, in the opinion of the court, raises a serious question as to the suitability of the proposed adoption, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor whose adoption is proposed. The guardian ad litem may have witnesses subpoenaed and present proof at the hearing.

48.89 RECOMMENDATION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE. (1) The recommendation of the state department of public welfare is required for the adoption of the following minors:

- (a) An illegitimate minor;
- (b) A minor who has no living parents or whose parents have had their rights legally terminated;
- (c) A non-resident minor;
- (d) A minor whose non-resident parent has executed a written consent to the adoption, valid at the time of its execution.

(2) The state department of public welfare shall make its recommendation to the court within 90 days of the entry of the order for hearing unless the time is extended by the court. The recommendation shall be part of the record of the proceedings.

(3) The recommendation of the state department of public welfare shall not be required if the consent of that department, a licensed child welfare agency or a county welfare department authorized by s. 48.57 to accept guardianship of a child is required by s. 48.84 (1) (c).

48.90 PROBATIONARY RESIDENCE. No petition for the adoption of a minor shall be granted until he has lived 6 months in the home of the petitioner. The 6 months' residence may be waived by order of the court, upon a petition stating the reason therefor, if the court is satisfied that immediate action is desirable and the best interests of the child will be furthered thereby.

48.91 HEARING; ORDER. (1) The hearing may be in chambers unless an interested person objects. The petitioner and the minor to be adopted, if 14 or older, shall attend unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) If after the hearing and a study of the report required by s. 48.88 and the recommendation required by s. 48.89, the court is satisfied that the necessary consents have been filed and that the adoption is in the best interests of the child, the court shall make an order granting the adoption. The order may change the name of the minor to that of the petitioners.

48.92 EFFECT OF ADOPTION. (1) After the order of adoption is entered the relation of parent and child and all the rights, duties and other legal consequences of the natural relation of child and parent shall thereafter exist between the adopted person and the adoptive parents. The adopted person shall be entitled to inherit real and personal property from and through the adoptive parents in accordance with the statutes of descent and distribution, and the adoptive parents shall be entitled to inherit real and personal property from and through the adopted person in accordance with said statutes.

(2) After the order of adoption is entered the relationship of parent and child between the adopted person and his natural parents, unless the natural parent is the spouse of the adoptive parent, shall be completely altered and all the rights, duties and other legal consequences of the relationship shall cease to exist.

48.93 RECORDS CLOSED. (1) All records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding shall be kept in a separate locked file. No person shall have access to such records except on order of the court for good cause shown. No person in charge of adoption records shall disclose the names of the natural or adoptive parents of a child unless ordered to do so by the court.

(2) All correspondence and papers, relating to the investigation, which are not a part of the court record, except those in the custody of agencies authorized to place children for adoption shall be transferred to the state department of public welfare and placed in its closed files.

48.94 NEW BIRTH CERTIFICATE. After entry of the order granting the adoption the clerk of the court shall promptly mail a copy thereof to the state bureau of vital statistics and furnish any additional data needed for the new birth certificate. Whenever the parents by adoption request, or the adopting parent and his spouse who is the natural parent of the person adopted request, that the birth certificate for the person adopted be not changed, then the court shall so order. In such event no new birth certificate shall be filed by the state registrar of vital statistics, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 69.33 or any other law of this state.

48.95 WITHDRAWAL OR DENIAL OF PETITION. If the petition is withdrawn or denied, the court shall order the case transferred to the juvenile court for appropriate action, except that if parental rights have been terminated and the guardian of the minor is the state department of public welfare, a licensed child welfare agency, or a county department of public welfare in counties having a population of 500,000 or more, the minor shall remain in the legal custody of that department or agency.

48.96 SUBSEQUENT ADOPTION. The adoption of an adopted person is authorized and, in that case, the references to parent and natural parent are to adoptive parent.

48.97 FOREIGN ADOPTION ORDERS. When the relationship of parent and child has been created by an order of adoption of a court of any other state or nation, the rights and obligations of the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this state shall be determined by s. 48.92.

PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

48.98 INTERSTATE PLACEMENT OF CHILDREN. (1) No person shall bring, or cause to be brought, or send, or cause to be sent, into this state or take, or cause to be taken, or send, or cause to be sent, out of this state any child for the purpose of placing such child in a foster home or of procuring his adoption, without first obtaining the consent of the state department of public welfare.

(2) Such consent by the state department of public welfare shall be given only upon the following conditions:

(a) Any person who brings or sends children into this state for the purpose of placing such children in foster homes or of procuring their adoption must file with the department a bond to the state of Wisconsin, approved by the department, in the penal sum of $1000, conditioned that he will not bring or send into this state any child who is incorrigible or unsound of mind or body and that he will remove any such child who becomes a public charge or who, in the opinion of the department, becomes a menace to the community prior to his adoption or becoming of legal age, and conditioned further that all placements shall be made under the same conditions as placements may be made by licensed child welfare agencies. The state department of public welfare may waive the bond herein provided for, whenever in the opinion of said department such waiver is warranted. This paragraph shall not apply to child welfare agencies licensed in this state and no bond shall be required from such agencies.

(b) Before any child is brought or sent into this state or taken from or sent out of this state for placement in a foster home, the person bringing, taking or sending such child must obtain a certificate from the state department of public welfare that such home is a suitable home for such child.

(c) The person bringing, taking or sending such child into or out of this state, shall make a report to the state department of public welfare, at least once each year and at such other times as the department may require, as to the location and well-being of such child, until he shall be 18 years of age or until he shall be legally adopted.

(3) The state department of public welfare shall have power and authority to make all necessary rules for the enforcement of this section, not in conflict therewith, and all persons bringing, taking or sending children into or out of this state shall comply with all such rules.

48.99 EARNINGS OF SELF-SUPPORTING MINORS. During any time when a parent of a minor neglects or refuses to provide for his support, or for his support and education, the earnings of such minor shall be his sole property as against such parent or any creditor of such parent.

SECTION 27. Chapter 322 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

CHAPTER 322

ADOPTION OF ADULTS

322.01 ADOPTION OF ADULTS. An adult may be adopted by any other adult, who is a resident of this state.

322.02 CONSENT. The consent of the adult to be adopted and the consent of the spouse of the petitioner, if that spouse has not joined in the petition under s. 322.01, shall be filed in writing with the court.

322.03 JURISDICTION AND VENUE. The county court shall have jurisdiction to order an adoption. The petition shall be filed in the county where the petitioner resides.

322.04 HEARING AND ORDER. After a hearing on the petition, which may be held in chambers and which shall be attended by the pe-

tioner and the adult to be adopted, unless the court orders otherwise, and after such investigation as the court considers advisable, if the court finds that it is to the best interests of the persons involved, an order of adoption may be granted which shall have the same legal consequences as an order of adoption of a minor under chapter 48.

SECTION 28. 348.351 of the statutes is amended to read:

348.351 All persons of the classes enumerated in this section, except dependent, neglected, or delinquent children * * * covered by ch. 48 shall be deemed vagrants, namely: All idle persons who, not having visible means to maintain themselves, live without employment; all persons wandering abroad and lodging in groceries, beer-houses, outhouses, market places, sheds or barns or in the open air; all common drunkards; all lewd, wanton, lascivious persons in speech or behavior; all persons wandering abroad or begging or who go about from door to door or place themselves in the streets, highways, passages or other public places to beg or receive alms, or fortune tellers and other like imposters or gamblers, and persons having no visible occupation and unable to give a satisfactory account of themselves, and every female who shall be found wandering about the streets and addressing male persons for the purpose of soliciting the commission of any lewd, indecent or unlawful act, or for the purpose of enticing any male person into a house of prostitution, bed house, room or other place for any unlawful purpose, or any female inmate of any bawdyhouse, or house of prostitution, or assignment house or brothel, or any common prostitute who shall be found wandering about the streets or loitering in or about any restaurant, lodging house, saloon or place where intoxicating liquors are sold; and shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor in the county jail not exceeding 6 months or by solitary confinement therein not less than 3 days nor more than 10 days.

And if upon such second or subsequent violation, the person so violating * * * subs. (2), (3) or (4) * * * of this section shall have been personally guilty of a failure to exercise due care to prevent violation thereof, he shall be punished upon conviction thereof by a fine of not more than $300 nor less than $25 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 60 days or by both such fine and imprisonment, and such conviction shall immediately terminate the license of the person so convicted and such person shall not be entitled to another license hereunder for a period of 5 years thereafter, nor shall he in that period act as the servant or agent of a person licensed hereunder for the performance of the acts authorized by such license. that informations may be filed without examination against persons bound over for trial pursuant to s. 48.45 for having violated that section, against fugitives from justice within the meaning of the constitution and laws of the United States and against corporations. The omission of a preliminary examination shall not invalidate any information unless the defendant moves to dismiss.

SECTION 35. This act shall take effect upon July 1, 1956.

Approved August 4, 1955.

CROSS REFERENCE TABLE

This table is intended as an aid in correlating the present law with the proposed children's code. It shows what sections in the proposed code cover the present sections in chapters 48, 54, and 322. It does not cover miscellaneous sections (for example, 58.01) which are affected by the bill. Also, it does not show (except in the case of complete repeals) what specifically happened to the present section, i.e., whether it was restated or substantially changed. It is necessary to turn to the proposed section covering the present one to find that information. The table is merely a guide to that information.

Some difficulty was experienced in dealing with chapter 54 since most of that chapter remains unchanged, although in some cases similar sections will also appear in chapter 48. Therefore, the table shows only those provisions where chapter 54 itself has been changed. Thus, present section 54.01 is shown because part of it remains in 54.01 as amended by this bill and part is restated in s. 48.01 of the proposed children's code.

<sup>1</sup> This provision giving the juvenile court jurisdiction over persons over 18 years of age but under 21 who are charged with certain nonviolent sex offenses is repealed because the committee was of the opinion that this type of crime did not merit special attention. See note to s. 48.12.

<sup>2</sup> Not all of the provisions in the present statutes are included in the proposed sections because they are amply covered by general provisions in ch. 59. See ss. 59.07 (6) and 59.15.

<sup>3</sup> The provision in sub. (1) relating to the appointment of individuals as probation officers is repealed on the ground that the statutes should provide only for professional service to the court; in those cases where the court feels that an individual in the community can provide better service on a given case, there is no need for special statutory authorization to call upon him.

Sub. (2) relating to the appointment of referees is repealed because they have never been used and because the advisory committee of juvenile court judges felt the use of referees is undesirable.

See footnote 1 for the reasons for the repeal of par. (d).

<sup>6</sup> The provision in this paragraph providing that all orders for the termination of parental rights are "valid and conclusive and binding" after 2 years is dropped in favor of the general provision that judgments are subject to direct attack on appeal for 40 days and then are subject only to collateral attack for lack of jurisdiction by the court. There is no reason why a judgment of a juvenile court in a termination of parental rights should not have the same status as any other court judgment.

<sup>9</sup> The power of the department to return a delinquent child to the juvenile court because the department cannot control him or because he is a bad influence at the training school is not retained. The court has no other source to draw upon if the department cannot handle the child and, in practice, the department never returns children.

<sup>10</sup> This section is repealed because persons who transport children to the department are in the employ of the county and receive their usual pay.

<sup>11</sup> Sub. (3) is repealed because the superintendent of the child center is now under the division for children and youth of the department and, of course, reports frequently to the department.

Sub. (4) is repealed for the reason stated in footnote 10.

<sup>12</sup> Section 48.385 is not completely covered by s. 48.57 because in a couple counties the officer or agency administering public assistance is not the county welfare department. However, a check with the state department revealed that in those counties this section is not used. Therefore, s. 48.385 is amply covered by s. 48.57.

<sup>13</sup> The provisions, which are repealed, were necessary in ch. 54 when that chapter applied to the treatment of delinquents and to the co-ordination of community services as well as to convicted offenders. Now that the chapter will apply only to the latter it would be confusing to leave the provisions in the chapter.

<sup>14</sup> This paragraph was inserted in the law for one particular case, which has been decided, and, therefore, is no longer necessary. See In re Adoption of Morrison, 267 Wis. 625, 66 NW 2d 732 (1954).

<sup>15</sup> This provision was dropped by the committee on the ground that an adoption order should have the same status as any other final order of the court, i.e., it is subject to direct attack on appeal for a very limited period, and then is subject to collateral attack only on ground of lack of jurisdiction. There is no good reason for allowing attack for procedural errors on an adoption order for 2 years after the adoption is granted.
