CHAPTER 634

AN ACT to clarify the legislative intent in chapter 459, laws of 1955, relating to certain kinds of capital improvements in state parks.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

20.205 of the statutes as created by chapter 459, laws of 1955, is repealed and recreated to read:

20.205 CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS IN STATE PARKS. (1) There is appropriated from the general fund as a nonlapsible appropriation to the conservation commission on July 1, 1955, $250,000 and on July 1, 1956, $250,000 for making capital improvements in the state parks including sewerage and sanitary facilities, domestic water supplies and shelters, in accordance with s. 27.01. If federal funds become available for improvements and development in Cox Hollow State Park during the biennium, not more than $50,000 of the state appropriation in this subsection shall become available for constructing a dam and artificial lake in Cox Hollow state park in Iowa county provided that Iowa county appropriates and deposits in the state general fund $10,000 pursuant to sub. (2).

(2) The county board of Iowa county is hereby authorized to appropriate $10,000 and deposit the same in the state general fund for the use of the conservation commission as provided in sub. (1), and the appropriations made by this section relating to Cox Hollow State Park shall not be released until the county board of Iowa county has made available and deposited this sum.

(3) All moneys received from the federal government for improvements and development in Cox Hollow State Park shall be deposited in the general fund and are hereby appropriated to the conservation commission for such purposes.

Approved November 17, 1955.
