CHAPTER 158

AN ACT to amend 92.04 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to the state soil conservation committee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

92.04 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

92.04 (1) (a) There is established, to serve as an agency of the state, and to perform the functions conferred upon it in this chapter, a state soil conservation committee. The committee consists of the following members: The director of agricultural extension, or at his designation the assistant or associate director * * *, the director of the state agricultural experiment station, or at his designation the assistant or associate director and the director of the state conservation department or a representative of the conservation department designated by him who shall be ex officio members, and * * * 4 practical farmers to be appointed by the governor for terms of 3 years each. One of such farmer members shall be a co-operator with a county soil conservation district. The members of the committee shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. The farmer members only shall receive $10 per day for each day necessarily spent in the performance of their duties. All members shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the performance of their duties. The committee shall keep a record of its official actions, shall adopt a seal, which seal shall be judicially noticed, and may perform such acts, hold such public hearings, and promulgate such rules and regulations as it deems necessary for the execution of its functions under this chapter.

Approved May 31, 1957.
