CHAPTER 220

AN ACT to amend 49.12 (6) of the statutes, relating to making specific the person or agency to whom income or resources of public assistance recipients are to be reported.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

49.12 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

49.12 (6) Where a person is originally eligible for assistance and receives any income or assets or both thereafter and fails to notify the * * * officer or agency granting such assistance of the receipt of such assets within 15 days after such receipt and continues to receive aid, such failure to so notify the proper officer or agency of receipt of such assets or income or both shall be considered a fraud and the penalties * * * in sub. (1) shall apply.

Approved June 18, 1957.
