The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 14.78 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. 15.95 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

15.95 (1) In order to receive and properly care for and maintain the bronze memorial statue of Major Richard Ira Bong when tendered by the national guard association of Wisconsin and other memorials, the fine arts commission is created to consist of the state architect or his representative, the director of the Milwaukee art institute, and the following members appointed to serve for terms of 6 years as follows: a member of the faculty of the department of art education of the school of education of the university or of the department of art history of the college of letters and science of that institution, designated by the president of the university; a member of the board of curators of the state historical society of Wisconsin, designated by the president thereof; and a citizen of the state of recognized standing in the fields of fine arts, architecture or landscape architecture appointed by the governor. All initial appointments shall be made prior to July 1, 1951 and shall expire on April 1, of the year of expiration. Vacancies shall be filled in accordance with the foregoing for the unexpired term. A majority of the members constitutes a quorum. The commission shall at its first meeting, to be called by the governor, elect a chairman and secretary from its own number and shall make such rules and regulations for the conduct of its own proceedings as it * * * deems proper. Thereafter meetings shall be called by the chairman at such time and place as he designates. All notices of meetings and minutes thereof, together with a record of all correspondence and official actions shall be kept by the secretary. All members shall serve without pay, but shall be compensated for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

SECTION 3. 15.97 of the statutes is created to read:

15.97 INTERAGENCY COMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND WELFARE. (1) The purpose of this section is to promote the welfare of the state by providing a method of collecting, analyzing and interpreting data and making recommendations to the several state agencies regarding the human resources of the state.

(2) There is created an interagency committee on health and welfare consisting of 3 representatives of the state board of health, 3 representatives of the department of public welfare and 3 other state employes or officers selected by the governor because of a particular interest in human welfare. All members shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing officers.

(3) The committee shall at its first meeting select a chairman, vice chairman and secretary and arrange for bimonthly meetings. Members shall receive no compensation for their services in addition to their salaries as state officers or employees.

(4) The committee may select subcommittees.

(5) The committee shall study operations of the several agencies of state government relating to health and public welfare and make recommendations to the legislature through the legislative council and to the departments involved. It shall have no other power than to study, advise and recommend.

(6) The several state agencies shall co-operate in making information available to the committee.

SECTION 4. 16.051 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

16.051 (1) An advisory committee consisting of 9 members is created to confer with the board. The members of the committee shall be appointed by the governor from among the appointing officers of the state. Of the members first appointed, 3 shall serve for a term of one year, 3 for a term of 2 years and 3 for a term of 3 years. Their successors shall each serve for a term of 3 years. Each member may designate a representative to attend in his stead.

SECTION 5. 19.08 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 6. 20.650 (42) (intro. par.) of the statutes is amended to read:

20.650 (42) (intro. par.) On July 1, 1947, $100,000 to be used as a revolving appropriation for the acquisition, storage and handling of surplus government materials for transfer in accordance with P.L. 754, 81st congress, amendments thereto or the provisions of other federal law pertaining to surplus government property, at cost plus handling charges to schools, school districts, nonprofit or tax supported nonprofit medical institutions, public health agencies and such other agencies, institutions and units of government as may hereafter be declared eligible to receive the same by act of congress, desiring such commodities. The proceeds from such transfers shall be paid into the general fund and credited back to this appropriation. * * *

SECTION 7. 21.02 (3) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

21.02 (3) (b) There is * * * created a state civil defense council to consist of the state civil defense director, who shall be chairman, or his designated representative, state civil defense codirectors, 2 members of each house of the legislature appointed as are standing committees in the respective houses and representatives of state departments appointed by the governor to serve at his pleasure. Legislative members of the council shall be paid their actual and necessary expenses to attend to their official duties. The council shall meet quarterly and at such other times as the chairman shall direct. The civil defense council is established to counsel the director in civil defense matters.

SECTION 8. 21.615 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

21.615 (1) (a) There is created the Wisconsin state armory board which is hereby made a body politic and corporate to consist of 5 members. The adjutant general and the state engineer or their designated representatives shall at all times be ex officio members of the board. The remaining 3 members shall be appointed by the governor from the active list of officers of the Wisconsin national guard or its successor, and any vacancy arising among the 3 members appointed by the governor shall be filled by appointment of the governor in like manner. The adjutant general of Wisconsin shall be chairman of the board. The board shall elect from its own membership a secretary and a treasurer and the board may change such officers from time to time.

SECTION 9. 23.26 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

23.26 (2) There is created a natural resources committee of state agencies consisting of the governor as chairman, ex officio; 2 members of the joint legislative council appointed by the chairman of the council; 2 representatives of the state conservation department appointed by the conservation commission; 2 representatives of the university of Wisconsin appointed by the president of the university; 2 representatives of the public service commission appointed by the public service commission; 2 representatives of the state department of agriculture appointed by the state board of agriculture; one representative of the state board of health appointed by the state board of health; one representative of the state planning division appointed by the state chief engineer; one representative of the attorney general's office appointed by the attorney general; one representative of the state department of taxation appointed by the commissioner of taxation; one representative of the division of industrial development appointed by the director; one representative of the highway commission appointed by the state highway commission and one representative of the state soil conservation committee appointed by the committee. Each such representative shall be a member of the staff of his respective board, commission, department, office or agency and, with the exception of the governor, shall continue in office at the pleasure of his appointing body.

SECTION 10. 23.27 (2) (d) of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 11. 31.36 (1) and (2) of the statutes are amended to read:

31.36 (1) There is created a board to be known as the "water regulatory board" consisting of * * * 4 members, whose duty shall be to supervise the operation, repair and maintenance of the dams and dykes constructed across drainage ditches and streams in drainage districts for drainage control, water conservation, irrigation, conservation, pisciculture, and to provide areas suitable for the nesting and breeding of aquatic wild bird life and the propagation of fur bearing animals, except dams used for cranberry culture.

(2) The water regulatory board shall consist of * * * 4 members, namely a member of the staff of the college of agriculture of the university of Wisconsin to be designated by the college of agriculture, a member of the staff of the conservation commission to be designated by the conservation commission, the chief state engineer or his designated representative, and a member of the staff of the public service commission to be designated by the public service commission.

SECTION 12. 36.225 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

36.225 (7) For the purpose of co-ordination between the state board of health and the university board of regents and for the purpose of determining policies, an administrative committee for the state laboratory of hygiene is created to be composed of the president of the university, the dean of the medical school, the president of the state board of health, the secretary of the state board of health and the director of the laboratory or their representatives. The board of regents of the university, upon the recommendation of the dean of the medical school with the administrative committee approving, shall appoint the director of the laboratory and such other members of its professional staff as are required for the administration of the duties of the laboratory. The technical staff and other employes necessary to the administration of the laboratory shall be employed by the director from the eligibility rolls of the state bureau of personnel.

SECTION 13. 36.227 (6) of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 14. 41.13 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

41.13 (1) There is * * * created a "State Board of Vocational and Adult Education." The board shall consist of 11 members, 9 appointed by the governor (3 to be employers of labor, 3 to be skilled employes other than those who have employing or discharging power, and 3 to be persons whose principal occupation is farming and who are actually engaged in the operation of farms), the state superintendent of public instruction or his representative and a member of the industrial commission to be selected by the commission or his representative. A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 15. 43.01 of the statutes is amended to read:

43.01 The justices of the supreme court and the attorney general or his representative shall be ex officio trustees of the state library, and shall have full power to make and enforce, by suitable penalties, such rules and regulations for the custody, superintendence, care and preservation of the books and other property contained in said library, and for the arrangement thereof as to said trustees shall seem necessary and proper.

144.52 (1) The committee on water pollution shall consist of the state chief engineer or his representative, a member or other representative of the public service commission designated by the commission, a conservation commissioner or an employe designated by the conservation commission, the state health officer, or a member of the board of health, designated by the board, and the state sanitary engineer, or other engineer appointed by the state board of health.

SECTION 22. 147.195 of the statutes is amended to read:

147.195 The state health officer, the secretary of the state board of medical examiners, and the attorney general or deputy attorney general, or their representatives, are hereby constituted ex officio a state medical grievance committee, to investigate, hear and act upon practices by persons licensed to practice medicine and surgery under s. 147.17, that are inimical to the public health. The state health officer shall be chairman of the committee. Meetings of the committee shall be held at the call of the chairman. Any member thereof shall have power to subpoena and swear witnesses, and take evidence. The committee shall have the power to warn and to reprimand, when they find such practice, and to institute criminal action or action to revoke license when they find also probable cause therefor under criminal or revocation statute, and the attorney general may aid the district attorney in the prosecution thereof. The records of said committee shall be kept by and be in the custody of the chairman thereof. No member of said committee shall receive any extra compensation therefor, nor other than his actual expenditures in attending upon his duties thereon. All divisions, officials and employes of state and local government are authorized to co-operate with the committee in conducting investigations and by making available to it pertinent data in their possession.

SECTION 23. 165.01 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

165.01 (4) The operation of the laboratory shall conform to the rules and policies established by the board. The board shall consist of 7 members, 5 of whom shall be appointed by the governor with the consent and advice of the senate. Of the appointees by the governor at least a majority shall be actively engaged in law enforcement work. The attorney general or his representative and a staff member of such department of the university as shall be designated annually by the president of the state university shall be ex officio members. Of those members initially appointed 3 shall be appointed for a term of 2 years, and 2 for a term of 4 years. Thereafter the term of office for each appointive member shall be 4 years, and appointees shall hold office until their respective successors shall be appointed and qualify; the term of office for the appointive members shall commence with the second Monday of March of the year of appointment. Ex officio members shall have the same authority as other members. A member of the board shall be elected chairman for such terms as the board shall fix. The superintendent shall act as secretary of the board and shall keep and preserve its records and minutes and have custody of its property, except that in his absence the board shall elect a secretary pro tem from its own number or otherwise. The board shall hold regular meetings at least 4 times annually. Special meetings may be called at the request of a majority of the board or on the chairman's own initiative on 5 days' notice.

Approved August 6, 1957.
