

CHAPTER 253

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 40.93 of the statutes, relating to the prohibition against salesmen of school supplies being school board members or teachers and providing penalties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

40.93 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

40.93 SCHOOL OFFICERS NOT TO BE BOOK AGENTS. (1) No county superintendent, county supervising teacher, school teacher, school administrator, school board member or other school employe connected with any public school shall act as an agent or solicitor for the sale of school books, school supplies or school equipment within the area of jurisdiction of his office, or the school district of employment, nor be authorized to solicit or promote such sales to individuals or the school district of such restricted areas, or receive any fee or reward for any such sales within such restricted areas of his jurisdiction or employment.

(2) Every person violating this section shall forfeit not less than $50 nor more than $200 for each offense and be liable to removal from office therefor.

Approved July 13, 1961.
