AN ACT to renumber 102.03 (1) (c); and to create 102.03 (1) (c) 2 and 102.07 (10) of the statutes, relating to workmen's compensation for state and municipal employes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 102.03 (1) (c) of the statutes is renumbered 102.03 (1) (c) 1.

SECTION 2. 102.03 (1) (c) 2 of the statutes is created to read:

102.03 (1) (c) 2. To enhance the morale and efficiency of public employes in this state and attract qualified personnel to the public service. It is the policy of the state that the benefits of this chapter shall extend and be granted to employes in the service of the state or of any municipality therein on the same basis, in the same manner, under the same conditions, and with like right of recovery as in the case of employes of persons, firms or private corporations. Accordingly, the same considerations, standards, and rules of decision shall apply in all cases in determining whether any employe under this chapter, at the time of the injury, was performing service growing out of and incidental to his employment. For the purposes of this subsection no differentiation shall be made among any of the classes of employers enumerated in s. 102.04 or of employes enumerated in s. 102.07; and no statutes, ordinances, or administrative regulations otherwise applicable to any employes enumerated in s. 102.07 shall be controlling.

SECTION 3. 102.07 (10) of the statutes is created to read:

102.07 (10) Further to effectuate the policy of the state that the benefits of this chapter shall extend and be granted to employes in the service of the state, or of any municipality therein on the same basis, in the same manner, under the same conditions, and with like right of recovery as in the case of employes of persons, firms or private corporations, any question whether any person is an employe under this chapter shall be governed by and determined under the same standards, considerations, and rules of decision in all cases under subs. (1) to (9). Any statutes, ordinances, or administrative regulations which may be otherwise applicable to the classes of employes enumerated in sub.
