

CHAPTER 676

AN ACT to amend 46.70, as created by chapter 427, laws of 1961, and to create 16.08 (2) (j) of the statutes, relating to the establishment and operation of youth conservation camps for boys.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 16.08 (2) (j) of the statutes is created to read:

16.08 (2) (j) Boys employed in the youth camps created under s. 46.70.

SECTION 2. 46.70 of the statutes, as created by chapter 427, laws of 1961, is amended to read:

46.70. The department may establish and operate youth conservation camps for boys in co-operation with the conservation commission. The camps shall be operated during summers in areas suitable for constructive employment in conservation projects, and boys employed shall be deemed to be in the unclassified service. The department of public welfare is authorized to acquire by fee or by lease all lands and facilities necessary for the establishment of camps for such department.

Approved February 12, 1962.
