

Assembly Bill 748

Date published:
November 10, 1967

CHAPTER 143, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to create 59.07 (48) of the statutes, relating to the power to create a county department of administration in populous counties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

59.07 (48) of the statutes is created to read:

59.07 (48) DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION; POPULOUS COUNTIES. In counties having a population of 500,000 or more, create a department of administration, provide for the appointment by the county executive of a director of such department and assign such administrative functions to the department as it deems appropriate, subject to the limitations of this subsection. No such function shall be assigned to the department where the performance of the same by some other county office, department or commission is required by any provision of the constitution or statutes of this state, except that administrative functions under the jurisdiction of the county civil service commission or the county auditor may be so assigned notwithstanding sub. (20) and ss. 59.72, 59.84 and 63.01 to 63.17.

Approved November 1, 1967.
