

Senate Bill 363

Date published:
December 22, 1967

CHAPTER 245, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to amend 895.035 (1) of the statutes, relating to parental liability for acts of a minor child.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

895.035 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

895.035 (1) The parent or parents having legal custody of an unemancipated minor child, in any circumstances where he or they may not be otherwise liable under the common law, shall be held liable for damages to property or for personal injury attributable to a wilful, malicious or wanton act of the child not to exceed $500, in addition to taxable costs and disbursements directly attributable to any wilful, malicious or wanton act of the child.

Approved December 7, 1967.
