CHAPTER 352, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to amend 147.151 (1) of the statutes, relating to the maximum number of temporary educational certificates which may be granted to persons having training in medicine and surgery.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

147.151 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

147.151 (1) Application for a temporary educational certificate may be made to the board by a person having training in medicine and surgery satisfactory to the board for purposes of this section. Such certificate shall entitle the holder to take postgraduate educational training in a teaching hospital which maintains standards for this training prescribed by the board, which standards shall be commensurate with those of nationally recognized accrediting organizations. Such certificate may be issued for a period not to exceed one year, and, in the discretion of the board, may be renewed annually for not more than 4 years. The fee for such certificate shall be fixed by the board at not more than $10 per annum, which amount shall also be paid for each renewal thereof. Not more than ~~50~~ 100 such certificates shall be issued in any one year and no more than ~~150~~ 500, including renewal certificates, shall be outstanding at any one time. The holder of such a certificate may, under the direction of a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state, perform services requisite to the training authorized by this section. Acting under such direction, the holder of such certificate shall also have the right to prescribe drugs other than narcotics, and to sign any certificates, reports or other papers for the use of public authorities which are required of or permitted to one licensed to practice medicine and surgery. The holder of such a certificate shall confine his training and practice within the hospital in which he is taking such postgraduate education. Neither he nor the hospital may receive any fees or other income for his services from any patients treated by him during the course of such training.

Approved January 23, 1968.
