SECTION 109. Chapter 34, laws of 1979, section 2035 (1) (a) (intro.) and (b) (intro.), 1 and 2 (intro.) are amended to read:

(Chapter 34, laws of 1979) Section 2035 (1) (a) (intro.) The department of local affairs and development shall submit to the governor, at a time designated by the department of administration but not later than 45 days after the effective date of this act July 29, 1979, a plan for expending the money appropriated for the 1979-81 biennium under section 20.545 (2) (b) of the statutes, as affected by this act, and section 20.545 (2) (c) 20.143 (3) (b) and (c) of the statutes, as created by this act. The plan shall indicate the functional categories of projects to be funded under the appropriation and shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(b) (intro.) The governor shall submit his or her recommendation on the plan required under paragraph (a) and the plan to the joint committee on finance for consideration at its first quarterly meeting after the effective date of this act July 29, 1979. The plan shall be considered by the joint committee on finance as are requests for supplemental appropriations under section 13.101 (5) and (6) of the statutes. The governor may approve, in whole or in part, the actions of the joint committee on finance with respect to the plan, subject to reconsideration by the committee as provided by section 13.101 (6) of the statutes. The department of administration may release funds appropriated for the 1979-81 biennium under section 20.545 (2) (b) or (c) 20.143 (3) (b) or (c) of the statutes only after the plan for the appropriation for that period has been approved as provided by this subsection. Funds appropriated for the 1979-81 biennium under section 20.545 (2) (b) or (c) 20.143 (3) (b) or (c) of the statutes may be encumbered or expended only in accordance with the applicable approved plan, except:

1. The department of local affairs and development may transfer not more than 5% of the amount allocated to a functional category in a plan to any other functional category in that plan; and

2. (intro.) The department of local affairs and development may transfer an amount which is greater than 5% of the amount allocated to a functional category in a plan from the category to any other functional category in the plan if prior to the transfer the department of local affairs and development:

SECTION 111. Position and property transfers. (1) Except as provided by subsections (2) and (3), all positions and employes of the departments of business development and local affairs and development are transferred on the effective date of this act to the department of development.

(2) The following unclassified positions in the department of local affairs and development are not transferred under subsection (1): the secretary, deputy secretary, administrator of the division of economic opportunity and the administrator of the division of housing. On the effective date of this act those positions are abolished.

(3) Thirty-six positions and employes in the department of local affairs and development primarily functioning to carry out the functions of the division of emergency government under sections 22.16 to 22.22 of the 1977 statutes, including the division administrator, as determined by the department of administration, are transferred to the department of administration. 5.5 positions and the incumbents of the division of community development of the department of local affairs and development are transferred to the department of administration, division of executive budget and planning, management and program analysis unit, to carry out the functions of section 16.58 of the statutes, as created by this act.

(4) An employe transferred to the department of development by this act has all the rights and the same status under subch. V of ch. 111 and 230 of the statutes in the department of development which the employe enjoyed in the department of local affairs and development or the department of business development immediately prior to the transfer.

(5) On a date determined by the secretary of the department of development or on the date which is 60 days after the effective date of this act, whichever first occurs:

(a) Two positions of the former division of economic opportunity, 11 positions of the former division of community development, 3 positions of the division of housing and one position in the office of administrative services, all of which were formerly included in the department of local affairs and development, and one position in the economic and promotion program which was formerly included in the department of business development, are abolished.

(b) Seven and three-fifths positions and the incumbents in the former energy conservation section of the department of local affairs and development which primarily functioned to carry out the purpose of section 20.545 (1) (e) and (ea) of the 1977 statutes and are transferred to the department of development by this act on its effective date, are transferred to the department of health and social services and assigned to the office of the secretary.

(c) Three and one-half positions and the incumbents of the former division of housing which primarily functioned to carry out the functions of the department of local affairs and development under sections 32.19 and 32.25 to 32.27 of the statutes and are transferred to the department of development by this act on its effective date, are transferred to the department of industry, labor and human relations.

(d) Four positions of the former division of economic opportunity of the department of local affairs and development are transferred to the department of health and social services and assigned to the office of the secretary.

(6) Notwithstanding section 230.34 of the statutes, limited-term or project employees of the department of development employed in a position funded under section 20.143 (3) of the statutes are exempt from layoff procedures or bumping resulting from the transfer or abolition of positions under subsection (5).

(7) Except as provided by subsection (8), all property of the department of local affairs and development and department of business development is transferred to the department of development.

(8) All equipment, furniture, supplies, records and other property of the department of local affairs and development associated with positions and functions transferred by this act to the department of administration, department of health and social services or department of industry, labor and human relations are transferred to those agencies, respectively, on the date the position transfers occur.

(9) All contracts entered into by the departments of business development or local affairs and development in effect on the effective date of this act remain in effect and, except as provided by subsections (10) to (13), are transferred to the department of development. The department of development shall carry out any such contractual obligations. All approvals of federal or state aid project applications by the departments of business development or local affairs and development remain in effect unless rescinded by the appropriate department.

(10) All contracts made by the department of local affairs and development for the purpose of section 20.545 (1) (e) and (ea) of the 1977 statutes are transferred to the department of health and social services.

(11) All contracts made by the department of local affairs and development for the purpose of its functions under sections 32.19 and 32.25 to 32.27 of the statutes are transferred to the department of industry, labor and human relations.

(12) All contracts made by the department of local affairs and development for the purpose of the functions of the division of emergency government under sections 22.16 to 22.22 of the 1977 statutes, as determined by the department of administration, are transferred to the department of administration. The division of emergency government shall carry out those contract obligations.

(13) All contracts made by the department of local affairs and development which were made for the purpose of carrying out the functions of the positions transferred to the department of health and social services are transferred to that department.

(14) Rules promulgated by the secretary of business development or local affairs and development in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in effect until modified or rescinded by the secretary of the department which administers the function for which the rules were promulgated.

(15) Rules promulgated by the department of business development or local affairs and development in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in effect until modified or rescinded by the department which administers the function for which the rules were promulgated.

(16) The adoption of a plan or standard and any order, appointment, designation, prescription, requirement, certification, direction, authorization, withholding or proceeding or any other action taken by the secretary of local affairs and development under sections 22.16 to 22.22 of the 1977 statutes which is in effect on the effective date of this act remains in effect until modified or rescinded by the secretary of the department of administration.

(17) Except as provided by subsections (18) and (19), the department of development may collect any amount payable under the statutes prior to the effective date of this act for the costs of materials, activities or services provided by the departments of local affairs and development or business development, and the amounts collected shall be credited to the appropriate appropriation, as determined by the department of administration.

(18) The division of emergency government may collect any amount payable under the 1977 statutes for the costs of materials, activities or services related to the function of the division of emergency government, as determined by the department of administration, and the amounts collected shall be credited to the appropriate appropriation, as determined by the department of administration.

(19) The department of administration may collect any amount payable to the former department of local affairs and development for consultation services or organizational or management studies, and the amounts collected shall be credited to the appropriation under section 20.505 (1) (i) of the statutes.

(20) Determinations, plan approvals or rejections and the adoption of standards by the department of local affairs and development under sections 32.19 and 32.25 to 32.27 of the statutes in effect on the effective date of this act remain in effect until modified or rescinded by the department of industry, labor and human relations.

(21) A designation of an agent under section 236.12 (2) (a) of the statutes in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in effect as a designation of an agent of the department of development until rescinded by that department.

(22) Four positions in the department of administration primarily functioning to carry out comprehensive and economic development planning are transferred to the department of development on the effective date of this act. Property and contracts of the department of administration associated with the functions and positions transferred by this subsection are transferred to the department of development.
