Date of enactment: November 22, 1995

Date of publication*: December 7, 1995

1995 WISCONSIN ACT 80

AN ACT relating to: the expenditure of $24,795.42 from the general fund for payment of a claim against the state made by Mary Johnson.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Claim against the state.

(1) There is directed to be expended from the appropriation under section 20.505 (4) (d) of the statutes, as affected by the acts of 1993 and 1995, $24,795.42 in payment of a claim against the state made by Mary Johnson, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to compensate her for income tax overpayments that were made by her husband, or that were obtained by levy against her husband's property, for taxable years 1985 to 1988, together with interest and costs. Acceptance of this payment releases this state, its officers, employes and agents from any further liability to the claimant resulting from overpayments of income taxes, and interest and costs assessed to collect the overpayments, by the claimant's husband, Mr. Floyd Johnson, for taxable years 1985 to 1988.

* Section 991.11, WISCONSIN STATUTES 1993-94: Effective date of acts. "Every act and every portion of an act enacted by the legislature over the governor's partial veto which does not expressly prescribe the time when it takes effect shall take effect on the day after its date of publication as designated" by the secretary of state [the date of publication may not be more than 10 working days after the date of enactment].
