2005 WISCONSIN ACT 467

AN ACT to repeal 13.83 (4); and to create 13.83 (4) of the statutes; relating to: special joint legislative committee on strengthening Wisconsin's families.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 13.83 (4) of the statutes is created to read:

13.83 (4) SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON STRENGTHENING WISCONSIN'S FAMILIES. (a) The joint legislative council shall, in each biennium, create a special committee on strengthening Wisconsin's families. The joint legislative council shall direct the special committee to study issues related to strengthening Wisconsin's families and develop specific recommendations and legislative proposals relating to these issues. The special committee shall, from time to time, report its findings and its legislative and other recommendations to the joint legislative council. Among the issues that the joint legislative council may direct the special committee to study are the following:

1. Ways to increase awareness of the importance of families in society and resolving social issues.

1m. The establishment of a state council to improve coordination among state agencies of programs that affect families; to set priorities for state agencies based on community and family needs; to consolidate funding for programs and services that affect families; and to encourage communities to form local collaborative entities to coordinate, decrease duplication of, and streamline the delivery of services provided by public and private entities to families, children, and youth.

2. Ways to target public moneys for family services to families and not individuals.

3. Existing laws relating to strengthening families, including specifically chs. 46, 48, 49, and 938.

4. Ways in which the results from the scientific study of attachment and brain development can be incorporated into public schools, day care centers, and homes.

5. Child support and custody issues involving fathers, for the purpose of ensuring that fathers are appropriately engaged in the lives of their children.

6. Changes to state agency rules, policies, guidelines, and procedures to strengthen families, reduce reliance on social service professionals for family support, and maximize community support for families.

7m. Identification of qualities held by successful Wisconsin families and recommendation of legislation to support those qualities.

8. Changes to the state tax code to strengthen families and provide incentives to engage in family-supporting activities and services.

9. The advantages and disadvantages of merging the departments of workforce development and health and family services to create a new department of family supports to integrate family services currently administered by multiple departments.

10. Proposed legislation to create a reconciliation council, consisting of representatives of different cultural
