TO ASSEMBLY BILL 263

February 11, 2020 - Offered by Representative BRANDTJEN.

1 AN ACT to amend 48.46 (2), 48.837 (5) and 48.91 (3); and to create 48.41 (2) (bm)
2 and 48.913 (1) (em) of the statutes; relating to: a disclaimer of parental rights 3 and payments allowed in connection with an adoption.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill provides a method by which a mother, father, or alleged or presumed father may disclaim his or her parental rights with respect to a child under the age of one who is not an Indian child in writing as an alternative to appearing in court to consent to the termination of his or her parental rights. The bill also allows payments to be made to a licensed out-of-state private child placing agency for services provided in connection with an adoption.

Disclaimer of parental rights

Subject to certain exceptions, current law generally requires a birth parent to appear in court to consent to the termination of his or her parental rights. This bill adds an exception that allows a mother, father, or alleged or presumed father to avoid appearing in court if he or she files with the court an affidavit disclaiming his or her parental rights with respect to a child under the age of one who he or she knows is not, or has no reason to know is, an Indian child. A minor may use such an affidavit of disclaimer only after the TPR petition has been filed, he or she has been offered legal counseling, and he or she has been appointed a guardian ad litem and only if the guardian ad litem approves the disclaimer. The affidavit must comply with certain requirements, including that it must be witnessed and notarized and must include a statement that the parent understands the effect of an order to terminate parental rights and that he or she voluntarily disclaims any rights that he or she may have to the child.

Under the bill, the affidavit containing a disclaimer of parental rights may be executed before the birth of the child by the father or alleged or presumed father but not the mother, may not be executed by either parent between the birth and 120 hours after the birth or on or after the child's first birthday, and may be executed by either parent 120 hours or more after the birth. If not revoked by the applicable time limit, the disclaimer is irrevocable unless obtained by fraud or duress. Under the bill, no action to invalidate a disclaimer, including an action based on fraud or duress, may be commenced more than three months after the affidavit was executed. If parental rights to a child are terminated based upon such a disclaimer of parental rights, the bill prohibits a court from entering an order granting adoption of the child until three months have passed since the affidavit was executed.

The bill requires the agency making the placement of the child for adoption, whether the Department of Children and Families, the county department of human services or social services (county department), or a licensed child welfare agency, to offer both counseling and legal counseling to the person disclaiming his or her parental rights, at the agency's expense, prior to execution of the affidavit. The person must acknowledge in the affidavit that he or she has been offered these counseling and legal counseling sessions and whether or not he or she accepted them.

Payments relating to adoption

This bill allows payments to be made to an out-of-state private child placing agency that is licensed in the state in which it operates for services provided in connection with an adoption and, where applicable, in compliance with the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, as certified to DCF. The bill defines a private child placing agency as a private corporation, agency, foundation, institution, or charitable organization, or any private person or attorney, that facilitates, causes, or is involved in the placement of a child from one state to another state. Current law allows payments for such services only to a child welfare agency licensed in this state.

15          12. An affidavit of disclaimer of parental rights under subd. 1. is not effective 16          if it would violate s. 48.028 or if the agency that is making the placement of the child

18          SECTION 2. 48.46 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

19          48.46 (2) A parent who has consented to the termination of his or her parental 20          rights under s. 48.41 or who did not contest the petition initiating the proceeding in 21          which his or her parental rights were terminated may move the court for relief from 22          the judgment on any of the grounds specified in s. 806.07 (1) (a), (b), (c), (d) or (f). Any 23          such motion shall be filed within 30 days after the entry of the judgment or order 24          terminating parental rights, unless the parent files a timely notice of intent to 25          pursue relief from the judgment under s. 808.04 (7m), in which case the motion shall

1 be filed within the time permitted by s. 809.107 (5). A motion under this subsection
2 does not affect the finality or suspend the operation of the judgment or order 3 terminating parental rights. A parent who has consented to the termination of his 4 or her parental rights to an Indian child under s. 48.41 (2) (e) may also move for relief 5 from the judgment under s. 48.028 (5) (c) or (6). A parent who has consented to the 6 termination of his or her parental rights to a child by filing an affidavit of disclaimer 7 of parental rights under s. 48.41 (2) (bm) may also bring an action to invalidate the 8 affidavit as provided under s. 48.41 (2) (bm) 2. d. Motions under this subsection or 9 s. 48.028 (5) (c) or (6) or 48.41 (2) (bm) 2. d. and appeals to the court of appeals shall 10 be the exclusive remedies for such a parent to obtain a new hearing in a termination 11 of parental rights proceeding.

12 SECTION 3. 48.837 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 48.837 (5) ATTENDANCE AT HEARING. The child, if he or she is 12 years of age or 14 over, and each petitioner shall attend the hearing on the petition under sub. (2). The 15 child, if he or she is 12 years of age or over, and each parent having custody of the child 16 shall attend the hearing on the petition under sub. (3), except that a parent who has 17 consented to the termination of his or her parental rights in writing under s. 48.41
18 (2) (b), (bm), or (d) is not required to attend the hearing. If the parent who has custody 19 of the child consents and the court approves, the proposed adoptive parents may be 20 present at the hearing on the petition under sub. (3). The court may, for good cause, 21 waive the requirement that the child attend either of the hearings.

22 SECTION 4. 48.91 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

23 48.91 (3) If Subject to this subsection, if after the hearing and a study of the 24 report required by s. 48.88 and the recommendation required by s. 48.841 or 48.89, 25 the court is satisfied that the necessary consents or recommendations have been filed

1 and that the adoption is in the best interests of the child, the court shall make an 2 order granting the adoption. If parental rights to the child were terminated based 3 upon an affidavit under s. 48.41 (2) (bm), the court may not make an order granting 4 adoption until 3 months have passed since the date the affidavit was executed. In 5 determining whether the adoption is in the best interests of an Indian child, the court 6 shall comply with the order of placement preference under s. 48.028 (7) (a) or, if 7 applicable, s. 48.028 (7) (c), unless the court finds good cause, as described in s. 48.028
8 (7) (e), for departing from that order. The order may change the name of the minor 9 to that requested by petitioners.

10 SECTION 5. 48.913 (1) (em) of the statutes is created to read:

11 48.913 (1) (em) Services provided in connection with the adoption by a private 12 child placing agency, as defined in s. 48.99 (2) (p), that is licensed under the laws of 13 the state in which it operates, and, where applicable, in compliance with the federal 14 Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 USC 1901 to 1963, as certified to the department.
