2021 Wisconsin Act 144
[2021 Senate Bill 358]

CESA Employees

2021 WISCONSIN ACT 144

Under current law, all employers generally must pay each of their employees at least monthly for their services performed in the preceding 31 days. Current law provides an exception for school district and private school employees such that those employees may elect to be paid over a 12-month period for services performed during the school year. The act adds employees of Cooperative Educational Services Agencies to this exception.

Effective date: March 6, 2022
