January 24, 1995 – Introduced by Senators RUDE, LEEAN and SCHULTZ, cosponsored by Representatives FREESE, JENSEN and BRANDEMUEHL. Referred to Joint committee on Finance.

1     AN ACT to repeal 44.20 (1m); and to amend 44.02 (5) of the statutes; relating
2     to: fees for admission to historic sites.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law establishes a schedule of fees to be collected by the state historical society for admission to the following historic sites: Old World Wisconsin, Madeline Island, Pendarvis, Stonefield Village, Villa Louis and Old Wade House. The historical society is prohibited from collecting any group child admission fee for admission to any historic site owned and operated by the historical society.

This bill eliminates the specific schedule of fees and the prohibition on group child admission fees. The bill permits the historical society to establish and collect a fee for admission to these historic sites.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
