1 Relating to: the life and public service of Bernice K. Rose.

2 Whereas, Bernice K. Rose was born on March 3, 1918, in Black Shear, Alabama, 3 and moved to Milwaukee in 1952; and

4 Whereas, Bernice Rose was employed by the federal government in the Internal 5 Revenue Service and U.S. Customs, receiving the Albert Gallatin Award (the highest 6 award presented to an employe of the U.S. Treasury Department); and

7 Whereas, after the death of her husband, she won a special election in 1977 to 8 become the first African-American woman elected to the Milwaukee County Board, 9 representing parts of Milwaukee and Glendale and serving until 1992; and

10 Whereas, Bernice Rose was known as a “tough, opinionated and honest” civil 11 rights activist involved in the NAACP during the Civil Rights Era and also as “a kind 12 and decent woman who tried to do the public good”; and

13 Whereas, Bernice backed housing programs and aid for the elderly, including 14 a senior center at North King Drive which was named after her husband, Clinton E.

1 Rose, and was known as “a special person whose care and love for people dominated 2 everything she did”; and

3 Whereas, Mrs. Rose never had children of her own but hundreds of 4 African-American women in Milwaukee considered her a mentor in politics, 5 including Milwaukee County Supervisor Elizabeth Coggs-Jones, who stated “she 6 was the best friend you could have”, and Senator Gwendolynne Moore, who 7 attributes her first senate election campaign to Mrs. Rose’s counsel; and 8 Whereas, she wanted to be known as a hard worker who influenced civil rights, 9 politics, mentored African-American women and made accomplishments for the 10 “good of the community”; now, therefore, be it

11 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the
