Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the department of workforce development (DWD) or a permit officer designated by DWD may issue a work permit permitting a minor 14 years of age or over to work in any gainful employment except in a classification of employment or a place of employment that DWD has determined to be prejudicial to the life, health, safety, or welfare of minors. Current law also permits a minor under 14 years of age to be employed in a limited number of occupations enumerated in statute. This bill prohibits an employer of a minor from interviewing the minor in connection with an allegation of misconduct by any employee of the employer unless the employer has first provided notice of the interview to the parent or guardian of the minor employee and permits the parent or guardian to be present at the interview.
