Analysis by the Legislative Reference BureauPROPERTY TAXES

Under current law, a person who owns property in a first class city or in certain second class cities and who wants to appeal his or her property tax assessment, must first appeal the assessment to the city assessor. The city assessor reviews the appeal and makes a recommendation to the board of assessors. The board of assessors considers the city assessor's recommendation and, ultimately, notifies the property owner of the board's determination regarding the property owner's appeal. The property owner may appeal the determination of the board of assessors to the board of review by providing a notice of appeal to the commissioner of assessments within ten days. Current law, however, is not clear as to whether the notice to appeal to the board of review is due within ten days from the date that the board of assessors issues its determination or from the date that the property owner receives the determination of the board of assessors.

This bill specifies that a property owner may appeal the determination of the board of assessors to the board of review by providing a notice of appeal to the commissioner of assessments within 15 days from the date that the board of assessors issues its determination.

REDUCING TAXES

Under current law, any taxpayer may petition the Department of Revenue (DOR) to reduce delinquent taxes, including any applicable costs, penalties, and interest. If DOR determines that the taxpayer is unable to pay in full the amount due, based on an examination of the taxpayer under oath, the taxpayer's financial statements, and any other information required by DOR, DOR determines the amount that the taxpayer is able to pay and then enters an order reducing the taxes, costs, penalties, and interest owed by the taxpayer.

If within three years from either the date on which DOR enters the order that reduces the taxpayer's taxes or the date of the final payment according to a payment schedule determined by DOR, whichever is later, DOR determines that the taxpayer has an income or owns property that is sufficient to enable the taxpayer to pay the remainder of the original delinquent taxes, including costs, penalties, and interest, DOR must reopen the order and order the payment in full of such taxes, costs, penalties, and interest.

This bill expands current law so that DOR is authorized to reduce any taxes, costs, penalties, and interest that are due from a taxpayer, regardless of whether the taxes, costs, penalties, and interest are delinquent.

ASSEMBLY BILL 482INCOME AND FRANCHISE TAXES

Under current law, spouses that file a joint income tax return are both liable for the payment of any tax related to that return. However, DOR may relieve a person of any tax liability related to a joint return, in a manner specified by the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and adopted by this state. Generally, DOR may relieve a person of any tax liability related to a joint return if the person's spouse did not notify the person of any tax liability or understatement of taxes related to the joint return. This bill corrects an outdated reference to the sections of the Internal Revenue Code that relate to a spouse's tax liability for a joint income tax return. The bill also requires a spouse to apply for relief from tax liability within two years from the date on which DOR begins collection activities on the spouse's tax liability or within two years from the effective date of the provision, whichever is later.

Under current law, a person may claim an individual income tax credit equal to 12.5 percent of the person's investment in a qualified new business venture, as certified by the Department of Commerce. Current law refers to this investment as a "bona fide angel investment." In addition, a person may claim an income or franchise tax credit equal to 25 percent of the amount that the person pays to a fund manager who invests the amount in a qualified new business venture, as certified by the Department of Commerce. Current law refers to this investment as an "early stage seed investment."

Under current law, a person who claims the bona fide angel investment credit and who is not a resident of this state or who is a part-year resident of this state must prorate the amount of the bona fide angel investment credit based on his or her Wisconsin adjusted gross income as compared to his or her federal adjusted gross income. Nonresidents and part-year residents who claim the early stage seed investment credit, however, are not required to prorate the amount of the credit. This bill eliminates the requirement that nonresidents and part-year residents prorate the bona fide angel investment credit.

Under current law, the Department of Commerce must promulgate rules to limit the aggregate amount of bona fide angel investment credits to $3,000,000 per taxable year and the aggregate amount of early stage seed investment credits to $3,500,000 per taxable year. Under the bill, the Department of Commerce must promulgate rules to limit the aggregate amount of bona fide angel investment credits to $3,000,000 per calendar year and the aggregate amount of early stage seed investment credits to $3,500,000 per calendar year.

Under current law, every employer must withhold state income taxes from the pay of each employee and remit the taxes to DOR. In the case of a single-owner entity that is disregarded as a separate entity under the Internal Revenue Code, the owner of the entity is considered to be the employer for purposes of withholding and remitting state income taxes. In addition, an employer must file a tax reconciliation report with DOR on an annual basis. Under current law, DOR cannot grant an extension for filing the report.

Under this bill, the owner of a single-owner entity that is disregarded as a separate entity under IRC is considered to be the employer for purposes of withholding and remitting state income taxes, unless the entity has elected to be an employer for the purpose of withholding federal income taxes. This bill also allows DOR to grant a 30-day extension for filing an annual reconciliation report.

This bill clarifies that a qualified retirement fund for federal income tax purposes is a qualified retirement fund for state income tax purposes.

SALES AND USE TAXES

Under current law, if a seller makes a claim for a refund of sales taxes or use taxes and the claim is honored, the seller is required to pass along the refund and related interest to the buyers and to submit to DOR the portion of the refund that could not be passed on, along with a penalty. Under current law, if a seller receives a sales or use tax refund as the result of an audit, the seller is not required to submit the refund and related interest to the buyers. Also, a seller is not required to submit to the buyers sales or use taxes that are collected erroneously.

This bill requires a seller who receives any refund of sales or use taxes, or who collects sales or use taxes erroneously, to submit such a refund or taxes to the buyer, or to DOR if the buyer cannot be located, within 90 days after receiving a refund or after discovering that the seller has collected taxes erroneously. Any portion of a refund or taxes not submitted to the buyer, or to DOR if the buyer cannot be located, within that 90 days must be submitted to DOR, along with a penalty.

OTHER TAXATION

Under current law, an estate tax that is not paid on the date on which it is due is subject to interest at the rate of 12 percent a year from the date of the decedent's death. Under the bill, DOR may waive the interest imposed on any additional estate taxes that arise from the discovery of property omitted in the inventory of the estate's total assets or in the original tax determination, if due diligence was exercised in determining the assets.

Under current law, generally, a tax-related document or payment that DOR must receive by a specified date is timely received, if the document or payment is mailed in a properly addressed envelope; the sender pays the postage; the envelope is postmarked on the day that the document or payment is due; and the document or payment is received within five days from the date on which the document or payment is due.

Under this bill, mailing a tax-related document or payment includes using a delivery service that has been approved by the Internal Revenue Service, for federal tax purposes.

Under current law, a person may appeal DOR's redetermination of various tax credits without paying a $25 filing fee. Under this bill, a person may appeal DOR's redetermination of an earned income tax credit without paying the filing fee.

This bill eliminates the requirement that the DOR audit the records of persons who perform emissions inspections under a contract with the Department of Transportation.
