1 Relating to: condemning the anti-American hate speech promoted by Professor
2 Ward L. Churchill.

3 Whereas, the United States of America was attacked on September 11, 2001, 4 a day that will be remembered as one of the darkest in American history; and

5 Whereas, the terrorists that attacked America that day murdered more than 6 3,000 innocent people who were doing nothing more than enjoying the inalienable 7 rights of a free people; and

8 Whereas, the families of those who were lost on September 11, 2001, are still 9 in the agonizing process of grieving and recovery, enduring immeasurable pain from 12 country in the following mobilization of national resources to achieve victory in the 13 War on Terror; and

14 Whereas, Professor Ward L. Churchill of the University of Colorado at Boulder
15 wrote an essay, “Some People Push Back’: On the Justice of Roosting Chickens,”

1 related to the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, with intentionally 2 inflammatory and offensive statements aimed at all Americans; and

3 Whereas, Professor Churchill in his essay compares the victims of the terrorist
4 attacks on September 11, 2001, to Adolph Eichmann, the man in charge of Hitler’s 5 plan to murder Jews during World War II; and

6 Whereas, on January 31, 2005, Professor Churchill issued a statement
7 clarifying that people working in the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001, 8 were the “technocrats of empire” and were the equivalents of “little Eichmanns”; and

9 Whereas, Professor Churchill is scheduled to give a speech on the campus of the 10 University of Wisconsin–Whitewater on March 1, 2005; and

11 Whereas, Professor Churchill’s essay and statements are clearly inflammatory, 12 offensive, and lacking in academic foundation, rightly outraging citizens both in 13 Wisconsin and across the country; and 14 Whereas, Professor Churchill’s tenure is currently the subject of review by the 15 University of Colorado Board of Regents and is the subject of a statement by the 16 governor of Colorado calling for his dismissal; now, therefore, be it
