Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a program of child care worker loan repayment assistance to be administered by the Higher Educational Aids Board (HEAB). Under the program, HEAB reimburses a child care worker for 10 percent of the outstanding principal amount of the child care worker's student loans or $1,000, whichever is less, after the child care worker has been continuously employed full time in this state for at least 12 months as a child care worker and after each additional 12-month period of such continuous full-time employment, subject to a maximum of five assistance payments, if all of the following apply:

1. The child care worker graduated on or after May 1, 2008, with a degree in an area relating to early childhood education.
2. The child care worker is currently repaying a student loan and is not in default on repayment of the loan.
3. The child care worker has submitted to HEAB a statement by the lender certifying the outstanding principal amount of the student loan and that the child care worker is not in default on repayment of the loan.

ASSEMBLY BILL 867

1 (b) The child care worker is currently repaying a student loan and is not in
2 default on repayment of that loan, as determined by the applicable lender.

3 (c) The child care worker submits to the board, on a form prescribed by the 4 board, a statement by the lender, dated within 30 days before the date on which the 5 statement is submitted to the board, certifying the outstanding principal amount of 6 the student loan and that the loan repayment status of the borrower is not in default
7 on repayment of the loan.

8 (2) LOAN REPAYMENT ASSISTANCE. From the appropriation account under s.
9 20.235 (1) (cw), the board, subject to the availability of funds, shall reimburse a child
10 care worker who is eligible under sub. (1) for 10 percent of the outstanding principal 11 amount of the student loans of the child care worker or in the amount of $1,000,
12 whichever is less, after the child care worker has been continuously employed full 13 time in this state for at least 12 months as a child care worker and after each
14 additional 12-month period of such continuous full-time employment, subject to a 15 maximum of 5 loan repayment assistance payments under this section.

16 (3) RULES. The board shall promulgate rules to implement and administer this 17 section, including rules establishing the criteria and procedures for loan repayment
18 assistance and, after first consulting with the department of health and family
19 services, rules defining “child care worker” for the purposes of this section. The 20 definition of “child care worker” shall include any child care position specified in 21 rules of the department of health and family services relating to child day care and 22 family day care centers for children.

SECTION 4. Fiscal changes.
