Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with certain limited exceptions, an individual must be a resident of this state and of the municipality and ward, if any, where the individual will vote for 28 consecutive days before an election to be eligible to vote in the election. This bill decreases the durational residency requirement to ten consecutive days. An individual who does not satisfy the ten-day residency requirement at his or her current location but who resided at another location in this state in the nine-day period preceding the election may vote absentee in the ward or municipality from which he or she moved if the individual is otherwise qualified to vote in that ward or municipality.

Currently, the deadline for late registration made in person and at the office of a municipal clerk or board of election commissioners to vote in an election is 5 p.m. or the close of business, whichever is later, on the Friday before the election. The deadline for absentee voting in person at the office of a municipal clerk or board of election commissioners is also 5 p.m. or the close of business, whichever is later, on the Friday before the election. This bill moves both of these deadlines to the day before the election.

SENATE BILL 173

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1           SECTION 1. 6.02 (1) and (2) of the statutes are amended to read:

2           6.02 (1) Every U.S. citizen age 18 or older who has resided in an election district
3 or ward for ~~28~~ 10 consecutive days before any election where the citizen offers to vote
4 is an eligible elector.

5           (2) Any U.S. citizen age 18 or older who moves within this state later than ~~28~~
6 10 days before an election shall vote at his or her previous ward or election district
7 if the person is otherwise qualified. If the elector can comply with the ~~28-day~~ 10-day
8 residence requirement at the new address and is otherwise qualified, he or she may 9 vote in the new ward or election district.

10          SECTION 2. 6.10 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

11          6.10 (3) When an elector moves his or her residence from one ward or 12 municipality to another ward or municipality within the state at least ~~28~~ 10 days
13 before the election, the elector may vote in and be considered a resident of the new 14 ward or municipality where residing upon transferring registration under s. 6.40 (1)
15 or upon registering at the proper polling place or other registration location in the 16 new ward or municipality under s. 6.55 (2) or 6.86 (3) (a) 2. If the elector moves his 17 or her residence later than ~~28~~ 10 days before an election, the elector shall vote in the 18 elector's former ward or municipality if otherwise qualified to vote there.

19          SECTION 3. 6.10 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

20          6.10 (4) The residence of an unmarried person sleeping in one ward and 21 boarding in another is the place where the person sleeps. The residence of an

4 registration or similar act the person elects to establish a residence elsewhere. If the 5 person has no parents and if the person has not registered elsewhere, the person's 6 residence shall be at the place that the person considered his or her residence in 7 preference to any other for at least ~~28~~ 10 consecutive days before an election. If this

14 for the president and vice president but for no other offices. The fact that the person
15 was not registered to vote in the state from which he or she moved does not prevent 16 voting in this state if the elector is otherwise qualified.

17 SECTION 5. 6.15 (2) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

18 6.15 (2) (a) The elector's request for the application form may be made in person

21 or may be made at the proper polling place in the ward or election district in which 22 the elector resides. If an elector makes application before election day, the 25 oaths. The affidavit shall be in substantially the following form:
