6 to: various changes in the campaign finance and lobbying laws.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes various changes in the campaign finance and lobbying laws. Significant provisions include:

Internet political activity; individual and public communications

Currently, with certain exceptions, payments for political communications are subject to disclosure under the campaign finance law, regardless of the medium that is used to conduct the communications. Payments for Internet communications are treated like payments for other communications. Currently, the cost of news stories, political interviews, editorial commentary, or endorsements, regardless of the medium by which they are distributed, are not contributions or disbursements and therefore are not reportable. The costs of communications by an organization other than a political party or personal campaign committee that are limited to the organization's members, shareholders, or subscribers are generally not reportable.

SENATE BILL 655

In addition, all services for a political purpose by an individual on behalf of a campaign finance registrant are not reportable and are not subject to the current prohibition on contributions and disbursements by corporations and cooperatives unless the individual performing the services is compensated specifically for those services.

This bill provides that any cost incurred to conduct Internet activity is not a contribution or disbursement, and is therefore not reportable if it is performed by an individual acting in his or her own behalf, or acting in behalf of another person, and if the individual is not compensated specifically for his or her services. This includes the cost or value of any equipment and services used by the individual to conduct the activity, but does not include professional video production services purchased by the individual. The bill similarly provides that any cost incurred in covering a news story, commentary, or editorial by a broadcasting station, cable television operator, producer, or programmer, Internet site, or newspaper or other periodical publication, including an Internet or other periodical publication, except the cost of a news story that appears in a medium that is owned by a candidate, candidate's authorized committee, or political party, is not a contribution or disbursement and is therefore not reportable. In addition, the bill provides specifically that the following are disbursements, and are therefore reportable: a) any payment for a communication to the general public for a political purpose except an Internet communication that is not a disbursement under the bill; b) any payment for the purchase or rental of an electronic-mail address list that is made at the direction of a campaign finance registrant for a political purpose; or c) any payment for an electronic-mail address list that is transferred to a registrant for a political purpose. The bill provides however, that the following are not disbursements, and are therefore not reportable: a) a communication or Internet activity by an individual acting in his or her own behalf, or acting in behalf of another person if the individual is not compensated specifically for those services, including the cost or value of any electronic equipment and services used by the individual to conduct the activity; or b) a nominal fee paid for a communication to the general public.

Solicitation expenditure limit

Currently, if a corporation or cooperative establishes a segregated fund for the purpose of supporting a candidate for state or local office, the corporation or cooperative may not expend more than $500 annually to solicit contributions to the fund or to a conduit. This bill eliminates this limit on expenditures made to solicit contributions.

Committee transfers

Under current law, no individual who is a candidate for state or local office may receive in contributions more than 65 percent of the value of the total disbursement level for the office for which he or she is a candidate during any primary and election campaign combined from all committees, including political party and legislative campaign committees. The bill modifies this limitation so that the amount does not include any transfer from any personal campaign committee to another personal campaign committee.

SENATE BILL 655

Under current law, no individual who is a candidate for state or local office may receive in contributions more than 45 percent of the value of the total disbursement level for the office for which he or she is a candidate during any primary and election campaign combined from all committees other than political party and legislative campaign committees. The bill modifies this limitation so that the amount includes any transfer from any personal campaign committee to another personal campaign committee.

Electronic filing

Under current law, Government Accountability Board (GAB) must require each registrant for whom GAB serves as a filing officer under the campaign finance laws and who or which accepts contributions of $20,000 or more during a campaign period to file campaign finance reports electronically. In addition, GAB must accept campaign finance reports electronically from any other registrant for whom GAB serves as a filing officer. Current law requires GAB to specify, by rule, software that is suitable for complying with the electronic filing requirement and must provide the software to registrants at a price not to exceed its cost. Any registrant who or which files reports electronically with GAB must also submit a copy of the report to GAB and the copy must be signed by an authorized individual.

Under the bill, the software that GAB specifies for electronic filing must allow an authorized individual to provide an electronic signature that is subject to a security procedure. The bill also eliminates the requirement that a registrant who or which files a report electronically must file a copy with GAB. A registrant who or which files a report electronically may, however, file with GAB that portion of the report signed by an authorized individual rather than submit the electronic signature of that individual.

Registration

Under current law, before any group makes or accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs obligations exceeding $750 in the aggregate in any year to promote or oppose a referendum, or before any individual accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs obligations exceeding $750 in the aggregate in any year for such purpose, that group or individual must file a registration statement with the appropriate filing officer. This bill increases the threshold for filing a registration statement for referendum-related activity from $750 to $2,500.

Under current law, every committee, other than a personal campaign committee, that makes or accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs obligations exceeding $25 in the aggregate in any year must file a registration statement. The bill increases the registration threshold for such a committee from $25 to $500.

Finally, under current law, every individual, other than a candidate or a candidate's agent, who accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs obligations exceeding $25 in the aggregate in any year to support or oppose the election or nomination of a candidate must file a registration statement. The bill increases the registration threshold for such an individual from $25 to $1,000.

SENATE BILL 655Campaign finance reporting

Under current law, a committee that is not acting in concert with a candidate and that makes one or more disbursements totaling $20 or more to advocate the election or defeat of a candidate within 15 days before a primary or election must submit a report documenting the disbursement to the appropriate filing officer within 24 hours and must include information about the disbursement in its next regular report. Similarly, under current law, if any contribution or contributions from a single contributor and totaling $500 or more are made to a candidate for state office or to a committee or individual within 15 days before a primary or election and the contribution is not included in a preprimary or preelection report, the recipient of the contribution must, within 24 hours, make a report to the appropriate filing officer, and must include the contribution in its next regular report. This bill extends the reporting period for such late filings from 24 hours to 48 hours.

Conduits; redirection of certain unclaimed contributions

The bill allows a conduit to redirect contributions made to the conduit but unclaimed for a period of two years to a committee, other than a personal campaign committee, that sponsors the conduit if there is such a committee or, if there is not such a committee, to the conduit's administrative fund. Prior to redirecting the unclaimed contribution, the conduit must either receive authorization from the surviving spouse or executor of the estate of a deceased individual to redirect the contribution or make at least ten good faith attempts to contact a contributor over the two-year period without success. The conduit may attempt to contact the contributor by U.S. mail, by electronic mail, or by telephone. The required attempts to contact the contributor may not all occur within one 30-day period. The bill requires the conduit to identify the sponsor on the conduit's registration form and to include on the conduit's financial report when a contribution is redirected.

Campaign contributions by lobbyists

Currently, no lobbyist may furnish anything of pecuniary value to a state agency official, legislative employee of the state, elective state official, candidate for elective state office, or the personal campaign committee of such an official, employee, or candidate except that a lobbyist may make a campaign contribution to an official or candidate who seeks office at the general (November) election or a partisan special election. The period during which a lobbyist may make a campaign contribution to an official or candidate at the general election or to the personal campaign committee of such an official or candidate begins on June 1 immediately preceding the election and ends on the date of the election.

This bill provides that a lobbyist may furnish a campaign contribution to such an official, employee, candidate, or committee at any time but that no lobbyist may personally make a campaign contribution except during the period when contributions are permitted to be made. This bill also extends the time during which a lobbyist may make such a contribution to between the first day authorized by law for the circulation of nomination papers as a candidate and the day of the election or special election.

13 The registrant need not file a termination report. A registrant not making such an

4 (b) If an individual conducts Internet activity for a political purpose in his or 5 her own behalf or in behalf of another person and is not compensated specifically for 6 those services, the cost or value of any equipment and services used by the individual
7 to conduct the activity, other than professional video production services purchased
8 by the individual, is not a contribution to the registrant as provided in s. 11.01 (6) (b)
9 8., regardless of who owns the equipment and services.

10 SECTION 12. 11.07 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 chapter or ch. 12, or service of any other notice or demand may be made upon such 2 agent.

3 SECTION 13. 11.12 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 11.12 (5) If any contribution or contributions of $500 or more cumulatively are 5 received by a candidate for state office or by a committee or individual from a single

8 treasurer of the committee or the individual receiving the contribution shall within 9 24 48 hours of receipt inform the appropriate filing officer of the information required
10 under s. 11.06 (1) in such manner as the board may prescribe. The information shall

21 agent or authorized committee of a candidate who is supported or opposed, and not 22 in concert with or at the request or suggestion of such a candidate, agent or 23 committee, but such that the disbursement is not included in a preprimary or 24 preelection report submitted under s. 11.20 (3), the individual or treasurer of the 25 committee shall, within 24 48 hours of making the disbursement, inform the

SENATE BILL 655

1 appropriate filing officer of the information required under s. 11.06 (1) in such 2 manner as the board may prescribe. The information shall also be included in the 3 next regular report of the individual or committee under s. 11.20. For purposes of 4 this subsection, disbursements cumulate beginning with the day after the last date
5 covered on the preprimary or preelection report and ending with the day before the 6 primary or election. Upon receipt of a report under this subsection, the filing officer 7 shall, within 24 hours of receipt, mail a copy of the report to all candidates for any 8 office in support of or opposition to one of whom a disbursement identified in the 9 report is made.

10 SECTION 15. 11.185 of the statutes is created to read:

11 11.185 Redirection of contributions made to conduits. (1) In this 12 section, “sponsor” means a committee, including a support committee, political party 13 committee, legislative campaign committee, and special interest committee, but 14 excluding a personal campaign committee, that is associated with a conduit.

15 (2) A conduit may redirect any contribution received from an individual or 16 organization to a sponsor or, if there is no sponsor, to an administrative fund of the 17 conduit if all of the following apply:

18 (a) The conduit has held the contribution for at least 24 consecutive months,
19 including the 24 months immediately preceding the effective date of this paragraph 20 [LRB inserts date], over which time the individual or organization that made the 21 contribution has made no contact with the conduit.

22 (b) Either of the following apply:

23 1. The conduit has, over the 24-month period described in par. (a), attempted 24 in good faith to contact the individual or organization that made the contribution at 25 least 10 times, and has documented each such attempt, but has been unable to make

SENATE BILL 655

1 contact with the individual or organization. A conduit may satisfy the requirement
2 to contact the individual or organization by telephoning the individual or 3 organization at the last-known telephone number; by sending a letter or postcard
4 to the individual or organization by U.S. mail; by sending a message by electronic 5 mail; or by any combination of the foregoing. A conduit may not satisfy the 6 requirement to attempt in good faith to contact the individual or organization at least 7 10 times if all 10 attempted contacts occur within a period of 30 consecutive days.

8 2. The surviving spouse or executor of the estate of a deceased individual that 9 made the contribution authorizes the redirection of the contribution.

10 (3) If a conduit redirects a contribution under this section, the conduit shall 11 include in its report under s. 11.12 (5) or 11.20 for the reporting period during which 12 the contribution is redirected the information about the original contributor 13 required for reporting purposes under s. 11.06 (1) (a) and (b) for the dates on which 14 the contribution is received and redirected and whether the contribution is 15 redirected to a sponsor or to an administrative fund of the conduit.

16 SECTION 16. 11.21 (16) of the statutes is amended to read:

17 11.21 (16) Require each registrant for whom the board serves as filing officer
18 and who or which accepts contributions in a total amount or value of $20,000 or more 19 during a campaign period to file each campaign finance report that is required to be 20 filed under this chapter in an electronic format, and accept from any other registrant 21 for whom the board serves as a filing officer any campaign finance report that is 22 required to be filed under this chapter in an electronic format. A registrant who or 23 which becomes subject to a requirement to file reports in an electronic format under 24 this subsection shall initially file the registrant's report in an electronic format for 25 the period which includes the date on which the registrant becomes subject to the

SENATE BILL 655

1 requirement. To facilitate implementation of this subsection, the board shall specify,
2 by rule, a type of software that is suitable for compliance with the electronic filing
3 requirement under this subsection. The software shall allow an authorized 4 individual to provide an electronic signature, as defined in s. 137.11 (8), that is 5 subject to a security procedure, as defined in s. 137.11 (13). The board shall provide 6 copies of the software to registrants at a price fixed by the board that may not exceed 7 cost. ~~Each registrant who or which files a report under this subsection in an~~
8 ~~electronic format shall also file a copy of the report with the board that is recorded~~
9 ~~on a medium specified by the board. The copy shall be signed by an authorized~~
10 ~~individual and filed with the board by each registrant no later than the time~~
11 ~~prescribed for filing of the report under this chapter. A registrant who or which files~~
12 ~~a report under this subsection in an electronic format may file with the board that~~ 13 ~~portion of the report signed by an authorized individual rather than submit the~~ 14 ~~electronic signature of that individual.~~ The board shall provide complete 15 instructions to any registrant who or which files a report under this subsection. In 16 this subsection, the “campaign period” of a candidate, personal campaign committee 17 or support committee begins and ends with the “campaign” of the candidate whose 18 candidacy is supported, as defined in s. 11.26 (17), and the “campaign period” of any 19 other registrant begins on January 1 of each odd-numbered year and ends on 20 December 31 of the following year.

21 SECTION 17. 11.23 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

22 11.23 (1) Any group or individual may promote or oppose a particular vote at 23 any referendum in this state. Except as authorized in s. 11.05 (12) (b) and (13), before
24 a group makes or accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs obligations 25 in excess of $750 $2,500 in the aggregate in a calendar year for such purposes, and

SENATE BILL 655

1 before an individual accepts contributions, makes disbursements, or incurs
2 obligations in excess of $750 $2,500 in the aggregate in a calendar year for such
3 purposes, the group or individual shall file a registration statement under s. 11.05
4 (1), (2) or (2r). In the case of a group the name and mailing address of each of its 5 officers shall be given in the statement. Every group and every individual under this 6 section shall designate a campaign depository account under s. 11.14. Every group 7 shall appoint a treasurer, who may delegate authority but is jointly responsible for 8 the actions of his or her authorized designee for purposes of civil liability under this 9 chapter. The appropriate filing officer shall be notified by a group of any change in 10 its treasurer within 10 days of the change under s. 11.05 (5). The treasurer of a group
