HOUSING AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Under current law, the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation (WEDC) is an authority, which is a public body corporate and politic, that has as its primary function the development, implementation, and administration of economic development programs in Wisconsin. Also under current law, the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority (WHEDA) is an authority whose primary function is to establish and administer housing programs in Wisconsin, especially housing programs for persons and families of low and moderate income. Like WEDC, WHEDA is also tasked with developing, implementing, and administering economic development programs in the state.

This bill merges WEDC and WHEDA into a new, successor authority to be known as the Forward Wisconsin Development Authority (authority). Under the bill, the authority is governed by a 12-member board of directors (board). Eight members of the board are public members nominated by the governor and appointed with the advice and consent of the senate to serve four-year terms. Two members of the board are appointed by the speaker of the assembly, consisting of one majority and one minority party assembly representative, and two members of the board are appointed by the senate majority leader, consisting of one majority and one minority party senator.

The bill also requires the governor to nominate a chief executive officer and chief operating officer of the authority. The chief executive officer must be approved by the board and appointed with the advice and consent of the senate. The chief operating officer is appointed upon approval of the board. Both officers serve at the pleasure of the governor. The board may delegate to the chief executive officer and the chief operating officer any powers and duties the board considers proper.

Under the bill, the board has all powers necessary or convenient to carry out the authority's purposes and other powers specified in the bill. The bill generally does not alter the existing housing and economic development programs that will be administered by the new authority, except as follows. Under current law, a recipient of a WEDC grant or loan of at least $100,000 must provide WEDC a schedule of expenditures within 120 days after the end of the fiscal year in which the grant or loan funds were expended and must engage an independent certified public accountant to determine whether the grant or loan funds and any matching cash or in-kind match were expended in accordance with the grant or loan contract.

Under the bill, any recipient of a grant or loan under an economic development program administered by the authority, regardless of the amount of the grant or loan, must, within the timeframe specified above or at a different time established in policies and procedures approved by the board, submit to the authority an attestation verifying that the grant or loan funds and any matching cash or in-kind match were expended in accordance with the grant or loan contract. The grant or loan recipient must make the documents supporting the attestation available for inspection by the authority. Additionally, the bill requires a recipient of an economic development grant or loan of at least $500,000 to engage an independent certified public accountant to determine whether the grant or loan funds and any matching cash or in-kind match were expended in accordance with the grant or loan contract. The bill exempts from all of these requirements a state department, independent agency, or authority and the University of Wisconsin System.

The bill also establishes a Wisconsin housing finance fund under the jurisdiction and control of the authority. The primary purpose of fund is to segregate the authority's assets in connection with the authority's housing-related purposes. The bill transfers most of WHEDA's assets to the Wisconsin housing finance fund.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

12 (2) The authority may establish one or more capital reserve funds to secure its 13 bonds issued in connection with its economic development programs, and shall pay 14 into each such capital reserve fund any moneys appropriated and made available by 12 issuance of the bonds, deposits in the capital reserve fund from the proceeds of the 13 bonds to be issued, or from other sources, an amount which, together with the 14 amount then in the capital reserve fund, will not be less than the capital reserve fund

1 outstanding by reason, but only by reason, of the payment of bonds when due, and 2 the payment when due and application in accordance with the resolution authorizing 3 those bonds, of all of the sinking fund payments payable at or after the date of

9 carrying out of the public purposes of this subchapter and subch. III, the authority 10 shall accumulate in each capital reserve fund established under this section an 11 amount equal to the capital reserve fund requirement for such fund. If at any time 12 the capital reserve fund requirement for any capital reserve fund established under 13 this section exceeds the amount of such capital reserve fund, the chairperson of the 14 board shall certify to the secretary of administration, the governor, and the joint 15 committee on finance the amount necessary to restore such capital reserve fund to 16 an amount equal to the capital reserve fund requirement in respect thereto. If such 17 certification is received by the secretary of administration in an even-numbered year 18 prior to the completion of the budget compilation under s. 16.43, the secretary shall 19 include the certified amount in the budget compilation. In any case, the joint 20 committee on finance shall introduce in either house, in bill form, an appropriation 21 of the amount so certified to the appropriate capital reserve fund of the authority.
22 Recognizing its moral obligation to do so, the legislature hereby expresses its 23 expectation and aspiration that, if ever called upon to do so, it shall make such 24 appropriation.

SENATE BILL 148

1           (6) In computing the amount of any capital reserve fund for the purposes of this 2 section, securities in which all or a portion of such capital reserve fund is invested

4           (7) Notwithstanding subs. (1) to (6), the authority, subject to such agreements 5 with noteholders or bondholders as may then exist, may elect not to secure any

7 in the resolution authorizing such issue. In this event, subs. (3) and (4) shall not 8 apply to the bonds of such issue in that they shall not be entitled to payment out of
