Referred to Committee on Senate Organization.

1     Relating to: honoring the life and public service of Representative Edward A.
2         Brooks.

3         Whereas, Edward “Ed” Brooks was a lifelong dairy farmer, loan officer, U.S.
4     Army Reserve veteran, loving husband and father, proud grandfather, friend to all, 5     and dedicated public servant; and

6         Whereas, Ed was born on July 1, 1942, in Baraboo, Wisconsin, graduating from 7     Webb High School (Reedsburg) in 1960, and graduating with a B.S. in Agricultural 8     Economics, University of Wisconsin–Madison in 1965; and

9         Whereas, Ed worked as a loan officer for Production Credit Association, and as 10    a county supervisor with the U.S. Department of Agriculture for a short time after 11    graduating from UW–Madison, before returning to the farm and his true passion, 12    dairy farming; and

13         Whereas, Ed had many other roles throughout his career including 18 years as 14    chair of a Wisconsin–based, multi-state dairy product cooperative, Foremost Farms

1 USA, Wisconsin Federation of Cooperatives chair, National Milk Producers Board
2 vice-chair, 4-H Club leader, St. John Lutheran Church Council president; and

3       Whereas, Ed began his foray into public service at the local level, elected to the 4 Reedsburg Town Board in 1979, becoming Town of Reedsburg chair in 1985 and 5 serving in that role for 34 years; and

6       Whereas, Ed was elected to the Wisconsin State Assembly in 2008 and served 7 as a state representative for the 50th Assembly District (which he referred to as the 8 “Best Assembly District” simply because all his constituents made it the best) for five 9 terms, representing Juneau County and parts of Monroe, Richland, Sauk, and 10 Vernon Counties; and

11       Whereas, Ed served as the chairman of the Assembly Committee on Local 12 Government in 2017-18, and chairman of the Assembly Committee on Urban and 13 Local Affairs in 2011-16, championed rural and local affairs—working to see that 14 residents in rural Wisconsin were recognized as a valuable resource to the state, and 15 was an advocate for rural schools, funding for rural broadband and funding for town 16 roads; and

17       Whereas, Ed married his loving wife, Barbara Wolfgram Brooks, in 1966, 18 raising three daughters, Kelli, Lisa, and Julie, together during their marriage of 52 19 years; and

20       Whereas, Ed’s life on the farm kept him very busy, but when he did find time 21 to get away, he enjoyed traveling by train, with Barb by his side. There were many 22 adventures on Amtrak, as family time was very important to him, and he genuinely 23 enjoyed visiting with people in the district; and
