1       Relating to: recognizing and proclaiming Hispanic Heritage Month, a month-long
2           celebration of the culture and traditions of U.S. residents who trace their roots
3           to Spain, Mexico, Puerto Rico, and the Spanish-speaking nations of Central 4           America, South America, and the Caribbean.

5           Whereas, the story of Hispanics and Latinos is the story of America, in that they 6           have contributed in various fields, from the arts, sciences, sports, and culture to the 7           economy, have encompassed the American dream, and have brought the energy and 8           drive of recent immigrants to this country; and 9           Whereas, Latinos serve in government at every level, from school boards to the 10          state house, from city councils and mayoral offices to Congress; and

11          Whereas, Latinos have served with honor and distinction in every conflict 12          involving the United States since the Revolutionary War and have made valuable 13          contributions through their service to this country; and
