Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes changes to certain workforce development programs administered by the Department of Workforce Development.

Youth apprenticeship

Under current law, DWD administers a youth apprenticeship program. Under that program, DWD is required to approve and maintain a list of occupational areas, commonly referred to as “career clusters,” including, at a minimum, 16 specific career clusters. DWD is required to develop curricula for the approved career clusters. This bill does the following:

1. Requires DWD to enter into contracts to facilitate the development of curricula for approved career clusters.
2. Requires DWD, in developing curricula for approved career clusters, to have at least one occupational pathway for each approved career cluster.

Local youth apprenticeship grants

Under current law, DWD administers a local youth apprenticeship grant program. The program awards grants to local partnerships that consist of one or more school districts, other public agencies, nonprofit organizations, individuals, and other persons for the implementation and coordination of local youth apprenticeship programs.

Under current law, the maximum amount of a grant awarded to a local partnership under the local youth apprenticeship grant program is up to $1,100 per youth apprentice. This bill requires the grants to be $1,700 per youth apprentice.

Career and technical education incentive grants and completion awards

Current law requires DWD to approve industry-recognized certification programs designed to 1) mitigate workforce shortages and 2) prepare individuals for occupations as fire fighters, emergency medical responders, or emergency medical services practitioners. Current law requires DWD to award incentive grants to school districts with industry-recognized certification programs equal to $1,000 for each student in the school district who obtains a high school diploma and successfully completes an approved program.

This bill increases the amount of incentive grants to $2,000 for each student in the school district who obtains a high school diploma and successfully completes an approved program.
