139.01 Tax imposed. An occupational tax is assessed, imposed and levied from June 30, 1935, upon the sale, exchange, offering or exposing for sale, having in possession with intent to sell, or removal for consumption or sale of fermented malt beverages, other than for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce or for shipment or sale by a brewer to a bottler or sales company. Such tax is levied and shall be collected at the rate of $1 per barrel of 31 gallons, and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity or for fractional parts thereof.

139.02 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the terms "brewer," "bottler," "wholesaler," "retailer," "license," "fermented malt beverages" shall have the same meaning as in section 66.054, and "licensed premises" shall be premises described in licenses issued by cities, villages or towns under the authority of said section. "Sales company", as used herein shall mean any person, firm or corporation whose place of business is located on the premises of a brewer in this state and who shall purchase from such brewer in the original package fermented malt beverages manufactured by such brewer for sale and shipment outside the state in interstate commerce.

139.03 Registration; stamps. (1) Every brewer, bottler, wholesaler, or retailer liable for payment of the emergency occupational tax imposed in this chapter shall, upon making application therefor, be assigned a registration number by the commissioner of taxation. The form of such application shall be prescribed by the commissioner. In the case of a brewer or bottler, such registration number shall be the same as that issued under 66.054 (3). Stamps pursuant to this section shall be sold and issued only to duly registered brewers, bottlers, wholesalers, or retailers.

(2) The emergency occupational tax imposed in section 139.01 shall be paid by the purchase of stamps from the commissioner of taxation, of such design and denominations as shall be designated by him. Each brewer, bottler, wholesaler, or retailer shall affix at the time of sale (unless previously affixed thereto) to each barrel, keg, case, or other container in which fermented malt beverages shall be packed for sale within the state except sales by brewers to bottlers a stamp so purchased, which stamp shall be of proper denomination. Not more than one tax shall be required to be paid on any one barrel, keg, case, or other container.

(3) Such stamp shall be affixed in this state to every barrel, keg, case or container at or before the time it is sold, delivered or given to any purchaser or consumer other than a bottler or sales company and before any fermented malt beverages are removed therefrom. Provided, however, that the commissioner of taxation may require in all cases, except sales by a brewer to a bottler, that fermented malt beverages shipped into this state shall have such stamp affixed to the barrel, keg or other container at the time the same enters this state. In case of sales by a brewer to a bottler or sales company within this state, it shall not be necessary for the brewer to affix stamps, but said stamps shall be affixed and canceled by said bottler before sale or delivery to any purchaser or consumer within this state. Such stamps shall be canceled by the person affixing the same. No retailer shall sell or remove any fermented malt beverages from any barrel, keg, case or other container, unless the same shall have affixed thereto duly canceled stamps of proper denomination. Every wholesaler or retailer shall be liable for the payment of the tax provided in this chapter on sales made for resale or consumption within this state, and shall be required to affix stamps of the proper amount on every barrel, keg, case or other container containing fermented malt beverages imported from without the state, sold, delivered or given to any purchaser or consumer within this state, unless such stamps shall have been previously affixed and canceled by a brewer or bottler. The stamps so affixed shall be evidence of the payment of the tax. It shall not be necessary to affix stamps to individual bottles of fermented malt beverages, but no fermented malt beverages shall be sold, offered or exposed for sale, bartered, exchanged, nor shall any bottles containing the same be removed from containers for sale or consumption, except for sale by a brewer to a bottler or sales company, unless the original container in which said fermented malt beverages are packed by the brewer or bottler shall have affixed thereto stamps of proper denominations.

(4) Sales by a brewer to a sales company for shipment outside the state in interstate commerce shall not be subject to the payment of the tax or other requirements imposed by this chapter except as herein specifically provided.

(5) Every brewer, bottler, wholesaler or retailer who shall be liable for the payment of the stamp tax as herein imposed shall, at the time any fermented malt beverages are sold within the state of Wisconsin, and before any of the contents shall be removed from the barrel, keg, case or other container, affix thereto a stamp or stamps of the proper denomination, which shall be canceled by the person affixing the same thereto. The commissioner of taxation shall, by regulation, prescribe the manner in which said stamps shall be affixed and canceled.

(6) No person or corporation shall sell, give or lend any stamps, nor shall any person or corporation purchase, accept or receive, or borrow any stamps from any person or corporation, it being the intent hereof in order to prevent fraud and deception and insure the collection of said tax to limit all sales and transfers of such stamps to the commissioner of taxation or his duly authorized representatives. The commissioner shall not sell or issue any stamps to any person or corporation other than a brewer or bottler, who shall have been assigned a registration number by the commissioner, or to a licensed wholesaler or retailer selling the product of a brewer or bottler who shall have been assigned a registration number by the commissioner. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the pledging of any stamps legally secured to any banking institution located in Wisconsin as collateral security to a loan.

(7) The commissioner of taxation shall keep a suitable record of the sale of all stamps which shall show the dates of sale and the names of the purchasers. On the certification of the commissioner the state treasurer shall refund to any purchaser or any banking institution located in Wisconsin the money paid for any stamps returned unfit for use or otherwise unused, the tax paid on any fermented malt beverages or intoxicating liquor which is spoiled or has become unfit for beverage purposes, and the tax paid on fermented malt beverages sold to the armed forces of the United States. The commissioner shall prescribe the method of proof required for obtaining such refunds.

(8) It shall be unlawful, except as otherwise herein provided, for any person, brewer, bottler, dealer or retailer, to sell, offer for sale, have in possession with intent to sell, offer or expose for sale, barter, exchange or give away fermented malt beverages within this state, except for shipment in interstate commerce, or sale or shipment by a brewer to a bottler or sales company without having first affixed to the barrel, keg, case or other container in which same shall be placed, the stamps required by this chapter.

(9) Any person who shall falsely or fraudulently make, forge, alter or counterfeit any stamp prescribed by this chapter, or shall procure or cause to be falsely or fraudulently made, forged, altered or counterfeited any such stamp, or who shall knowingly utter, publish, pass or tender as true any false, altered, forged, or counterfeited stamp, or who shall knowingly possess any such false, altered, forged or counterfeited stamps, or shall affix the same to any barrel, keg, case or other container, or shall use any barrel, keg, cask, box, case or container upon which the stamp or stamps have been canceled, for the purpose of placing therein for sale, offering for sale, or having in possession with intent to sell, or selling, offering for sale, or exposing for sale, exchange or barter, any fermented malt beverages, without placing thereon stamps in the amount and of the kind and character herein provided, except for shipment in interstate commerce, or for shipment by a brewer to a bottler shall be deemed guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term of not less than one year nor more than 10 years.

(10) Whenever the department of taxation or any sheriff, policeman, marshal or constable, within his respective jurisdiction, shall discover any fermented malt beverages in or upon any premises other than the premises of a brewer, bottler or sales company, or any intoxicating liquor in or upon any premises other than the premises of a manufacturer, rectifier, winery or wholesaler, and upon which the tax has not been paid or which was possessed, kept, stored, manufactured, sold, distributed or transported in violation of the provisions of this chapter and chapters 66 and 176, the department of taxation or any such officer may forthwith seize and take possession of said fermented malt beverages or intoxicating liquors. Any such fermented malt beverages or intoxicating liquors so seized shall be held by the department of taxation and disposed of through the director of purchases in the manner provided in section 176.62.

(11) The commissioner of taxation shall enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner shall design, procure, furnish and sell the stamps herein provided for. He shall collect and keep a record of all taxes collected and stamps sold, and shall issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(12) A brewer or bottler may have in and upon his premises fermented malt beverages in barrels, kegs, cases or other containers without having stamps affixed thereto, but the same shall not be removed from the premises of said brewer, bottler, or sales company except for shipment in interstate commerce or for shipment by a brewer to a bottler or sales company without such stamps being affixed thereto.

(13) A brewer may furnish to workmen employed in said brewery for consumption upon the brewery premises without charge, fermented malt beverages manufactured by said brewer without stamps being affixed to the barrel, keg, case or container from which said fermented malt beverages are drawn or removed.

(14) In case of shipments by a brewer to a bottler located within the state, of fermented malt beverages for the purpose of bottling by said bottler, the brewer shall not be required to place stamps upon any barrel, keg, case or other container in which said shipment is made, but shall securely affix thereto a label or statement, in such form as shall be prescribed by the commissioner of taxation, reciting that the shipment is made for the purpose of bottling. Each brewer making such shipments shall file with the commissioner on or before the 10th day of each calendar month a report for the preceding calendar month, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, showing the dates and quantities of such shipments and the name and address of each bottler to whom made.

(15) Every brewer making sales to a sales company within this state shall file with the commissioner of taxation on or before the 10th day of each calendar month a report for the preceding calendar month, in such form as the commissioner shall prescribe, showing the dates and quantities of such sales and the names and addresses of the sales company to whom such sales were made.

(15a) Each brewer, bottler and wholesaler shall keep complete and accurate records of all sales of fermented malt beverages and of all such beverages manufactured or purchased for resale. The commissioner of taxation may prescribe reasonable and uniform methods for keeping such records. Every brewer, bottler and wholesaler shall on or before the 10th day of each calendar month make a verified return to the commissioner of all fermented malt beverages manufactured, sold, delivered or shipped by him during the preceding calendar month. Such return shall be made upon forms prescribed and furnished by the commissioner and shall contain such other information as the commissioner may deem necessary for the collection and enforcement of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(16) Any brewer, bottler or wholesaler required by this chapter to make, render, sign or verify any report, who makes any false or fraudulent return, or who shall fail to make such return when due, or who shall in any manner attempt to evade the tax imposed by this chapter, or any person who shall aid or abet in the evasion or attempted evasion of such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any brewer, bottler or wholesaler who shall fail to keep the records required by this chapter or who shall falsify such records shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be subject to punishment in like manner.

History: 1951 c. 417.

139.04 Enforcement not to be restrained. No suit shall be maintained in any court to restrain or delay the collection or payment of the tax levied in this chapter. The aggrieved taxpayer shall pay the tax as and when due, and, if paid under protest, may at any time within 90 days from the date of such payment, sue the state in an action at law to recover the tax so paid. If it is finally determined that said tax, or any part thereof, was wrongfully collected for any reason, it shall be the duty of the director of budget and accounts to issue a warrant on the state treasurer for the amount of such tax so adjudged to have been wrongfully collected, and the treasurer shall pay the same out of the general fund. A separate suit need not be filed for each separate payment made by any taxpayer, but a recovery may be had in one suit for as many payments as may have been made.

139.05 Presumptions from possession. The possession of any fermented malt beverages on any licensed premises, other than upon the premises of a brewer, bottler or sales company, shall be deemed prima facie evidence that such products are kept and possessed with intent to sell, offer for sale, display for sale, barter, exchange, or give away such fermented malt beverages, and that such products are subject to the tax herein imposed.

139.06 Inspection for enforcement. The commissioner of taxation or his duly authorized employes, and any sheriff, policeman, marshal, or constable, within their respective jurisdictions, may at all reasonable hours enter in and upon any licensed premises, and examine the books, papers and records of any brewer, bottler, sales company, wholesaler, or retailer, for the purpose of inspecting the same and determining whether the tax imposed by this chapter has been fully paid, and shall have power to inspect and examine, according to law, any premises where fermented malt beverages are manufactured, sold, exposed for sale, possessed or stored, for the purpose of inspecting the same and determining whether the tax imposed by this chapter has been fully paid, and shall have power to inspect and examine, according to law, any premises where fermented malt beverages are manufactured, sold, exposed for sale, possessed or stored, for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of this chapter are being complied with. Any refusal to permit such examination of such premises shall constitute sufficient reason for the refusal of the commissioner to furnish to such person so refusing any stamps. Such refusal shall automatically operate as a revocation of any license or permit granted for the sale of any fermented malt beverages and in addition shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in section 139.08.

139.07 Compulsory testimony. Any person may be compelled to testify in regard to any violation of this chapter of which he may have knowledge, even though such testimony may tend to incriminate him, upon being granted immunity from prosecution in connection therewith, and upon the giving of such testimony, such person shall not be prosecuted for or because of the violation relative to which he has testified.

139.08 Penalties. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter for which specific penalty is not herein provided shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, nor less than $50, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 90 days, nor less than 10 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and any license issued to him shall be subject to revocation. In the event that any such person shall be convicted of a second offense, such offender, in addition to the penalties herein provided, shall forthwith forfeit the right to purchase any stamps from the commissioner of taxation, and any license which may have been issued to him by any city, village or town shall without notice be forthwith forfeited.

139.09 Exemption. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the manufacture or sale of any beverage containing less than one-half of one per centum of alcohol by volume.

139.11 Payment of tax. (1) The occupational tax imposed in s. 139.01 shall be paid to the commissioner of taxation on or before the 10th day of the month following the month in which such malt beverages are first sold in this state or shipped into this state from outside.

(2) Each brewer and bottler in this state and each wholesaler of malt beverages within this state to whom malt beverages are shipped from outside this state shall on or before the 10th day of each month, file with the commissioner of taxation on forms prescribed by him a verified return containing such information as may be required to compute and show the amount of occupational tax payable by him for the next preceding calendar month on malt beverages.

(3) The amount of the occupational tax in the amount disclosed by the return shall accompany the return and shall be paid to the commissioner of taxation.

(4) Each brewer, bottler and wholesaler required to file a return shall keep complete and accurate books and records, accounts and other documents as may be necessary to substantiate the accuracy of his return and the amount of occupational tax due and shall retain such records for a period of 2 years.

(5) In order to insure the payment of all state occupational taxes imposed by law on malt beverages together with all interest and penalties thereon, all persons required to make returns and payment of such tax shall first enter into a surety bond with corporate surety, both such bond and surety to be approved by the commissioner of taxation. Subject to the limitations hereinafter specified, the amount of such bond required of any taxpayer shall be fixed by the commissioner of taxation and may be increased or reduced by him at any time. In fixing the amount the commissioner shall require a bond in total amount equal to twice the taxpayer's estimated maximum monthly excise tax, ascertained in such manner as the commissioner may deem proper. In any event the amount of such bond required of any one taxpayer shall not be less than $1,000 nor more than $100,000. These bonds shall be filed with the commissioner of taxation.

(6) No person shall receive malt beverages in this state which have been shipped directly to him from outside this state by any person other than a holder of a permit issued by the commissioner of taxation. The commissioner of taxation may issue such permits to out-of-state shippers which shall allow the permittee to ship malt beverages to and only to holders of a wholesaler's license issued under the provisions of s. 66.054 (5) (b). Such permit shall be issued free of charge. The application for such permit and the permit shall be in such form as the commissioner shall prescribe. The application shall contain all such provisions as to the commissioner shall seem proper and necessary to effectuate the purpose of this chapter and shall include, but without limitation by reason of this special mention, a provision that the permittee in consideration of the issuance of a permit, agrees:

(a) To comply with and be bound by the provisions of this section pertaining to the making and filing of a bond and the making and filing of returns, the payment of taxes and the keeping of records;

(b) That he will permit and be subject to all of the powers granted by s. 139.06 to the commissioner of taxation or his duly authorized employes for inspection and examination of his premises and his records; and

(c) To pay the expenses reasonably attributable to such inspections and examinations made within the United States. If any such permittee violates any of the provisions of his application or of this chapter, the commissioner of taxation may revoke or suspend such permit for such period of time as he may determine.

(7) If the occupational tax shall not be paid when due, there shall be added to the amount of the tax as a penalty a sum equal to 15 per cent thereof, and in addition thereto interest on the tax at the rate of one per cent per month or fraction of a month from the date the tax became due until paid. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve any person otherwise liable from liability for payment of the occupational tax.

(8) The commissioner of taxation shall make refund or allowance to the brewer, bottler or wholesaler, as the case may be, of the amount of the occupational tax paid or payable on whole cases or full kegs of malt beverages sold in this state when such malt beverages have spoiled or become unfit for beverage purposes, and the tax on malt beverages sold to the armed forces of the United States. The commissioner shall prescribe the method of proof required for obtaining such refunds or allowances.

(9) (a) If any present or future law or regulation effective in any state shall prohibit a person from shipping into such state a fermented malt beverage produced outside thereof except upon condition that the person shipping such fermented malt beverage into such state shall first obtain a license therefor from such state and if such license or a renewal thereof may be refused for violation of any of the laws of such state relating to fermented malt beverages, it shall be unlawful to ship into this state or to purchase or sell within this state any fermented malt beverage produced in such state, unless and until the brewer thereof shall be the holder of a valid subsisting license as provided in this subsection.

(b) Such license shall be issued by the commissioner of taxation for the period of one year and must be renewed annually. The application for such license shall be verified and shall contain an agreement on the part of the brewer that brewer shall observe all laws of this state relating to fermented malt beverages, and such other information and statements as the commissioner of taxation may require. Any such brewer who has, directly or indirectly, violated any of the laws of this state relating to fermented malt beverages shall not be entitled to such a license. No fee shall be required for any such license. The commissioner of taxation may require the applicant to furnish and file a bond to be approved by the commissioner of taxation payable to the state in an amount not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the applicant with the undertakings set forth in the application for the license.

(c) The commissioner of taxation may suspend or revoke any such license for any false statement made in the application therefor and for any prior or subsequent violation by the licensee, directly or indirectly, or by any person, firm or corporation affiliated with or in any way subject to the direction or control of the licensee, of any of the laws of this state relating to fermented malt beverages.

(d) Any such brewer and any other person, firm or corporation who ships or causes or permits to be shipped into this state any such fermented malt beverage, and any person, firm or corporation who knowingly receives within this state from outside this state, any such fermented malt beverage, at a time when the brewer thereof is not the holder of a valid and subsisting license as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(e) The conditions and requirements of this subsection shall be in addition to and not in lieu of the conditions and requirements of subs. (1) to (8).

(f) If any law or regulation of any state shall specify uniform or substantially uniform requirements with respect to any ingredient of fermented malt beverages produced in such state and fermented malt beverages produced outside thereof but sold within such state and if such state or its officials or agencies shall enforce or give effect to such provisions as against any malt beverage produced outside of such state without concurrently and to the same extent enforcing and giving effect to such provisions as against all malt beverages produced and sold within such state, and if the foregoing shall be found and determined by the commissioner of taxation after a public hearing, it shall thereafter be unlawful and a misdemeanor for any person with knowledge of such finding and determination to ship into or receive or sell within this state any malt beverage produced in such state unless and until the commissioner of taxation shall find and determine, after a public hearing, that such discriminatory treatment has been discontinued.

History: 1953 c. 178, 361, 441.

139.12 Discontinuance of use of occupational tax stamps. (1) From and after September 1, 1953, the purchase, affixation, and cancellation of malt beverage occupational tax stamps shall not be required in the state of Wisconsin, any and all requirements in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) The commissioner of taxation shall make refund or allow proper credit to the purchaser, for unused malt beverage stamps upon delivery to said commissioner of such unused tax stamps in the possession of the purchaser on said date.

139.27 Administrative and penal provisions of tax on fermented malt beverages applicable. (1) The occupational tax on intoxicating liquors imposed in section 139.26 shall be collected by the commissioner of taxation and shall be administered, collected, and enforced as is the occupational tax on fermented malt beverages. The sales shall not be had until 3 days after the posting of such notice or the publication thereof. The provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (35) relative to expenses, costs of sale, disposition of proceeds and liens shall apply to the proceeds of sales derived under this subsection unless inapplicable. The commissioner or such agent, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and the costs of the sale, shall pay, out of the proceeds of such sale, all liens according to their priorities, which are established, by intervention or otherwise, in the proceedings for conviction as being bona fide and as having been created without the lienor having notice that such property was being used or was to be used in connection with such violation. All such liens against property sold under the provisions of this subsection shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of the sale of the property.
