253.01 County court established. There is established in each county a county court which is a court of record with the jurisdiction specified in ss. 253.10 to 253.14.

253.015 Shawano-Menominee county court. Menominee county shall not be organized separately for county court purposes, but shall be a part of a joint Shawano-Menominee county court, which constitutes a single judicial district. Such court shall have 2 divisions, the Shawano county division and the Menominee county division. No county judge for Menominee county shall be elected separately, but the duly elected judge of the Shawano-Menominee county court shall serve as county judge of the district. The books, papers and records of the office of such county judge shall be kept at the county seat of the county in which he has his principal office, or, at the discretion of the county judge, at either or both county seats. The incumbent judge of Shawano county court shall assume his duties as judge of Shawano-Menominee county court on April 29, 1961. The judge of Shawano-Menominee county court may appoint a register in probate and a public administrator for each of the 2 divisions of the county court, or, in his discretion, may appoint one register in probate or public administrator to serve both divisions. If a separate register in probate is appointed for the Menominee county division, he may be the same person who is the duly elected clerk of circuit court for Menominee county. If one register in probate serves for both the Shawano and Menominee county divisions of the county court, the office of such register in probate shall be in the city of Shawano. The qualified electors of Menominee county shall cast ballots for the election of the judge of the Shawano-Menominee county court at the first election for county judge held after April 29, 1961, and at every succeeding election for county judge. The Shawano-Menominee county court shall possess all the jurisdiction in Menominee county that it presently has in Shawano county, and the judge of the Shawano-Menominee county court shall possess all of the duties, rights and powers as a judge that he presently has in Shawano county. Any civil matter or proceeding or criminal matter or action, except a criminal action which the justice of the peace has no jurisdiction to try, commenced in the Shawano-Menominee county court, Menominee county division, justice court branch, which would be within the jurisdiction and authority of the justices of the peace of Menominee county had the action been commenced in Menominee county, shall be, on the motion of the defendant in a criminal case or in the case of a forfeiture, and may be on the motion of either party in other cases, transferred by the county judge to a justice of the peace in Menominee county for trial. The county boards of Menominee county and Shawano county shall enter into an agreement prorating the joint expenditures involved in conducting the joint county court, and for such purposes the county board of Menominee county shall be authorized to appropriate, levy and collect a sum each year sufficient to pay its share of such expenses; provided that no portion of the initial cost, or amortization of debt on the Shawano county courthouse or repair, maintenance, or improvement of the same or items which are taxable costs between the parties shall be included as a joint expenditure for proration purposes. If the 2 county boards are unable to agree on prorating the joint expenditures involved, then the judge of the circuit court for the tenth circuit shall, under appropriate notice and hearing, determine the prorating of such expenditures, on the basis of the volume and character of work and responsibilities, to each county, under such procedure as he prescribes. The county judge may order court held at the county seat in Menominee county or at the county seat in Shawano county or other appropriate place, and the general terms of the court for the county court of Shawano county shall be the terms of Shawano-Menominee county court. The proper place of trial of civil and criminal actions commenced in such court shall be the place in either county where the judge orders court held. The jury commissioners of Shawano county shall serve as jury commissioners for the Shawano-Menominee county court, and shall add to the present Shawano county court jury list from which jurors shall be drawn the names of qualified residents of Menominee county, and the list shall be known hereinafter as the Shawano-Menominee county court jury list. All fines and all costs and fees collected in Shawano-Menominee county court in causes of action arising out of Menominee county shall be accounted for and paid over quarterly to the county treasurer of Menominee county and in causes of action arising out of Shawano county shall be accounted for and paid over quarterly to the county treasurer of Shawano county. All process and pleadings and documents of the Shawano-Menominee county court shall be entitled, "Shawano-Menominee County Court: County Division", to be completed with the name of the appropriate county.

253.10 Probate jurisdiction. (1) The jurisdiction of the county court shall extend to the probate of wills and granting letters testamentary and of administration on the estates of all persons deceased who were at the time of their decease inhabitants of or residents in the same county and of all who shall die without the state having any estate within such county to be administered, and to any other cases authorized by law; to the appointment of guardians to minors and others in the cases prescribed by law; to all matters relating to the settlement of the estates of such deceased persons and of such minors and others under guardianship; to all cases of constructions of wills admitted to probate in such court; and to all cases of trusts and trust powers created by will admitted to probate in such court, including administration under ch. 323 of trusts created in accordance with s. 231.49 (1); and to hearing objections to the granting of licenses to marry, to ordering the refusal of such licenses, and to the granting of stays upon the issuances thereof.

(2) (a) The county court shall have concurrent jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all matters and controversies which may arise between any personal representative, guardian or trustee appointed by such court and any other person relating to title to or interest in real and personal property so far as such matter or controversy is incidental to and necessary for the complete administration of the estate, guardianship or trust, and regardless of who has possession of the property or in whose name it may be, to the same extent and with like effect as such matters and controversies may be heard, tried and determined in courts of general jurisdiction.

(b) The county court shall also have concurrent jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters and proceedings involving inter vivos trusts, and the administration thereof, in the manner provided in ch. 231.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not affect the provisions of chs. 313 and 319 relating to debts of or claims against decedents or persons under guardianship.

(4) The jurisdiction of the county court shall also extend to a determination of the heirs and next of kin of nonresident foreign deceased persons who at the time of their death had an interest in real or personal property within such county and the state.

(5) The jurisdiction of the county court shall also extend to the administration of estates of nonresident foreign deceased persons who at the time of their death had an interest in real or personal property within such county and the state. A claim against the state school fund under s. 318.03 (4) shall be deemed an interest in real or personal property.

(6) (a) For the purposes of subs. (4) and (5) the situs of intangible personal property found in this state belonging to nonresident foreign deceased persons shall be deemed to be within the state.

(b) All matters arising under subs. (4) and (5) shall be administered in accordance with the statutes, rules and procedure of the county court applicable to the estates of deceased residents of the state.

(c) All nonresident foreign persons referred to in subs. (4) and (5) who have not been heard from for 10 years shall be presumed to be dead.

(9) If a case be originally within the jurisdiction of the county courts of 2 or more counties the court which shall first take cognizance thereof by the commencement of proceedings shall retain the same throughout.

(10) The jurisdiction assumed by any county court in any case, so far as it depends on the place of residence of any person or the location of his estate, shall not be contested in any action or proceeding whatever except on an appeal from the county court in the original case or when the want of jurisdiction appears on the same record.

(11) In counties having a population of 500,000 or more, the probate jurisdiction, in addition to the foregoing, shall include matters under chs. 50, 51, 142, 157 and 322, and ss. 46.10, 48.81 to 48.97, 52.01, 231.36, 319.31 and 319.61 to 319.71. The jurisdiction of matters under ch. 51 shall be concurrent with branches 3, 4 and 12.

History: 1961 c. 487, 495; 1963 c. 6, 269.

Revisor's Note, 1963: Prior to the revision of Ch. 253 in 1959, 253.10 (4) to (8) were 253.035. Making them separate subsections in 253.10 did not make it clear that they were to be read as a unit. This change makes their application clear without changing the law. (Bill No. 44-S)

Where one county court has determined that a decedent resided in that county, has issued letters of administration and no appeal is taken, another county court has no jurisdiction over a petition for probate of the will of decedent. Estate of Hertzfeld, 10 W (2d) 333, 102 NW (2d) 838.

In determining the jurisdiction of a county court, which has been given some additional jurisdiction concurrent within certain limits with that of circuit courts, the distinction between the county court acting in probate and one acting under its concurrent jurisdiction must always be kept in mind. (2) is construed as giving such jurisdiction to the county courts as probate courts. A county court, as a probate court, had jurisdiction to try a controversy arising between an executor and the widow of the testator, relating to the title to real and personal property, and for an accounting or determination of the amount of rent due to the estate from the widow as occupant of the real property. Estate of Elsing, 12 W (2d) 471, 107 NW (2d) 580. Under (2) the county court in probate had jurisdiction to hear and determine a claim against an estate which arose out of a controversy concerning a lease of land by the deceased testatrix to the claimant, which claim was for loss of seed oats and plowing. Estate of Kuepper, 12 W (2d) 577, 107 NW (2d) 621.

253.11 Civil jurisdiction. (1) The county court has jurisdiction of all actions to foreclose a land contract, mortgage, or lien concurrent with the circuit court and of all other civil actions and special proceedings of all kinds concurrent with the circuit court except actions for damages in which a sum in excess of $100,000 exclusive of interest and costs is demanded in the complaint, provided that in counties having population of 500,000 or more the county court shall not have jurisdiction over any matters arising out of chs. 245 and 247. If a counterclaim or cross complaint for an amount in excess of $100,000 exclusive of interest and costs is filed, the county court shall order the case transferred to the circuit court and the parties shall proceed as if the action or proceeding had been originally begun in the circuit court. If the party who files the cross complaint or counterclaim is finally adjudged to be entitled to recover less than the amount of $100,000 exclusive of interests and costs, the circuit court may deny costs or partial costs to that party and, in addition, may impose costs or partial costs on that party.

(2) The county court shall have jurisdiction over all actions for ordinance violations within the county except violations of ordinances of towns, villages or cities which have established municipal justices of the peace provided however that ordinance violation cases shall be transferred from municipal justices of the peace to county court if the defendant follows the procedure of s. 301.245.

(3) Except for municipal justice court concurrent jurisdiction as to garnishment under s. 62.24, the county court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction of garnishment actions where the amount involved is under $500.

History: 1961 c. 495, 614; 1963 Sup. Ct. Order, 14 W (2d) vii; 1963 c. 88, 407.

253.12 Criminal jurisdiction. The county court has jurisdiction of all criminal matters except treason, concurrent with the circuit court; except that in any county having a population of 500,000 or more the county court shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all charges for misdemeanors arising within the county, and in addition thereto shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all charges for offenses arising within the county, the punishment whereof does not exceed one year's imprisonment in the state prison or county jail, or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both. Said branches shall also have authority and jurisdiction to issue warrants for the apprehension of persons charged with the commission of offenses in said county which are triable before the criminal court branches of the circuit court, and jurisdiction to examine said alleged offenders and commit or hold them to bail.

History: 1961 c. 495.

253.12 and 954.13 (1), Stats. 1961, are in direct conflict with respect to the jurisdiction of the county court of Milwaukee county, but 954.13 (1) is deemed the controlling one where the defendant requests a preliminary hearing, and thereunder a defendant in such court on a charge of committing the felony of fraud on a hotel or restaurant keeper should have been granted a preliminary hearing on his request therefor. State ex rel. Sucher v. County Court, 16 W (2d) 565, 115 NW (2d) 611.

253.13 Jurisdiction of children and of adoptions. (1) The county court has exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings under ch. 48 and under ch. 322.

(2) (a) As used in this subsection "county court" or "court" means the county court in counties having a population of 500,000 or more. Branch 11 of the county court (children's court), in addition to the jurisdiction, powers and duties prescribed for juvenile courts under ch. 48, shall also have jurisdiction in actions or proceedings involving the custody of children under 18 years of age whether raised by habeas corpus or otherwise, except such children as are wards of or whose care and custody is under the control of other courts. Where the words "juvenile court" are used in the statutes, they shall be deemed to include said branch 11 of the county court (children's court) or the judge of said court in counties of 500,000 or more, except as otherwise specifically provided.

(b) No person shall be eligible for the office of judge of such court unless for 5 years immediately prior to January 1 of the year of election he has been a resident of the county.

(c) Such court shall be held at the county seat, or at such other place within the county designated by the county board.

(d) Practice and procedure in such branch 11 of the county court shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for civil courts.

(e) The court shall have a clerk with such assistants as the county board determines and a stenographic reporter, each of whom shall be appointed pursuant to ss. 63.01 to 63.17, and shall be paid such compensation as the county board determines. The clerk shall be appointed by the clerk of the circuit court. The reporter shall be appointed by the judge of said branch 11. Such clerk shall be an officer of the court and, before entering upon his duties, shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and furnish an official bond in such amount and with such sureties as the county board determines; such oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of such county. The reporter of said court shall be an officer of said court and shall take and file a constitutional oath of office. He shall be furnished by the county with all necessary supplies.

(g) Any judge of the county court of such county may hold court with the judge of said branch 11 (children's court) upon request of the judge of said branch 11, and in case of the absence or the disability of the judge of said branch 11 without said request having been made, the senior judge of the county court of such county shall designate some judge of said county court to so hold court, whose duty it shall be to act temporarily in the place of said judge of said branch 11, and while so doing, the judge, so substituting, shall have all of the powers of the regularly elected judge of said branch 11.

(h) The orders and judgments of said branch 11 of the county court (children's court) in all actions and proceedings tried before it may be appealed from, examined and reviewed by either the circuit court of said county, not as a trial de novo, but as a review of the record, or the supreme court in the same manner as other orders and judgments of the circuit court may be appealed from and reviewed.

History: 1961 c. 495, 643, 673.

253.135 Two counties; jurisdiction retained. If a case is originally within the jurisdiction of the county courts of 2 or more counties the court which first takes cognizance thereof by commencement of proceedings shall retain the same throughout.

History: 1961 c. 495.

253.14 May issue process. The several county courts shall have power to issue all summonses, citations, subpoenas, executions, warrants and processes authorized by law which may be necessary to carry into effect any order, judgment or decree thereof, to compel the attendance of witnesses or to carry into execution the powers with which they are vested.

253.142 Disqualification of judge by relationship or interest; by affidavit; procedure.
